DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY IN STATE 30,000 TO 40,000

Indicated by Returns Received at Headquarters Up to Midnight—Chairman Warren Says Nine Congressional Districts Are Safely Democratic and There is Hope for the Tenth District.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS YET IN DOUBT

Their Fate Will Not be Known Before This Afternoon, But Chairman Bailey and Secretary Wilson Are Hopeful of Their Adoption—Hood Claims Majority of 2,000 in Third District.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 3.—Incomplete returns at midnight show the election of R. L. Doughton, Democrat, in the Eighth North Carolina congressional district by about 1,600 majority.

In the Tenth district J. J. Britt, Republican candidate, claims election by 800 and J. M. Gudger, Democrat, by 500 majority. The indications are that Britt is elected.

The proposed constitutional amendments were adopted by an overwhelming majority.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 3.—Democratic State Chairman Warren said at midnight that the vote in North Carolina has been very light, but that the indications are that the State has given a Democratic majority of thirty to forty thousand, and that nine of the ten congressmen elected by this State are certainly Democratic, with the Tenth district result still in doubt; that while it looks like J. J. Britt has defeated Congressman Gudger in the Tenth district, there is still a possibility that even the Tenth is safe.

Chairman Warren says the Democrats will have 100 members of the House of Representatives and 45 Senators in the General Assembly. One of the distinct surprises that came to Democratic headquarters was that Madison county has elected a Democrat to the Legislature, a supposedly "rock ribbed" Republican county.

There was special gratification at reports from Forsyth crediting Democrats with 200 majority, when the result was seriously in doubt.

George E. Hood telephoned Democratic headquarters late tonight that his district, the Third, has given him a good majority for Congress, some of the county majorities being: Duplin 300, Pender 400, Onslow 400, Wayne 500, Craven 800, Jones 350. Sampson gave 1,400 Republican majority, however, and there is apprehension that the State senator from that district will be Republican.

Returns as to vote on the Constitutional amendments in the State are very meagre and indefinite. Chairman J. W. Bailey, of the Amendments Campaign committee said at midnight that it will be impossible to determine the fate of the amendments before Wednesday afternoon, but that he is very hopeful that they have carried; that while they had heavy adverse votes in Wake, Guilford, Cumberland, Robeson, and some other counties, returns show New Hanover, Beaufort, Lenoir, Duplin and other counties reporting with large majorities for the amendments.

Secretary W. S. Wilson, of the Amendments committee, said he feels not only hopeful but quite confident that the amendments are safe, although there is a probability that the Tax amendment is defeated, but he will not be surprised if this is safe also.

WEST FOR AMENDMENTS

Returns Meagre But Believed That Mountain Counties Have Voted "Yes"

(Special Star Telegram)

Asheville, N. C., Nov. 3.—Although but few of the election officers have reported the vote on the Constitutional Amendments, it is believed that the western counties of North Carolina have voted strongly for the proposed change in the Constitution of the State.

Returns are being received by telephone and in many cases the election officers have decided to use the mails in sending in the votes on the amendments, which will result in a delay of a day or two in receiving the majorities.

EIGHTH DISTRICT SAFE

Doughton Elected by 1,500 Majority, Says Watts—Tax Amendment Lost

(Special Star Telegram)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 4.—A telephone message from Collector A. D. Watts, at Statesville, at 1 o'clock this morning to Democratic headquarters, was to the effect that Congressmen Doughton, in the Eighth district, has certainly defeated his Republican opponent, Linney by 1500 votes and that Iredell increased her Democratic majority of two years ago.

At this hour incomplete returns as to the constitutional amendments have been received from 30 counties with indications that the Tax amendment is defeated and the others probably safely ratified. Late returns from Sampson county show that along with her 1,400 Republican majority, she voted 2,000 majority against the amendments.

CLOSE IN COLUMBUS.

On Legislative Ticket—Majority of 1,500 on Others—Amendments.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Whiteville, N. C., Nov. 3.—Unofficial returns from 15 out of the 19 precincts in Columbus indicate a Democratic majority of about 1,500 out of 2,000 votes cast over the county. The vote in Whiteville township for Congress, considered indicative of the Democratic vote in the county, was about 3 to 1, the vote all over the county being comparatively light.

The vote for representative up to a late hour tonight indicates that J. R. Williamson, Democratic nominee, will be elected by a small plurality over Ashley M. Benton, independent candidate. The vote from the 15 precincts heard from give Williamson 615; Benton 668, and J. D. Maultsby, Republican nominee, about 250, but the other four townships are expected to give enough majority for Williamson to elect him.

The vote in Whiteville township between Porter Hufham, independent candidate for county attorney, and Garland Brown, Democratic nominee, give Brown a majority of 11 votes.

The vote on the amendments in Whiteville township, besides the divided vote, were 145 for the amendments and about 23 against. There was a small vote against the second, third and tenth amendments.

SWEEPING REPUBLICAN GAINS ARE INDICATED BY RETURNS FROM YESTERDAY'S ELECTION

Chas R. Whitman Leads Republicans to Victory in New York State, Defeating Glynn by Large Majority--Cannon, Longworth, McKinley and Other Former Members of Congress are Returned by Republican Vote--Democrats Still Control Congress by Small Majority--Senatorial Results Unknown.

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS WASHINGTON, D. C.

New York, Nov. 3—Sweeping Republican gains throughout the country, which reached a climax in this State by the over whelming victory of Charles S. Whitman for Governor, and James W. Wadsworth to succeed Elihu Root in the United States Senate were indicated tonight in early returns of the elections.

Heavy falling off of the Progresive vote in many States, the return to Congress of former Speakar Joseph G. Cannon, decisive Republican gains in New York and Illinois in the House membership and the overwhelming defeat of Representative A. Mitchell Palmer, by Senator Bois Penrose in Pennsylvania were features of the early returns.

Democratic leaders, however, were pleased by a triumph in Massachusetts where former Representative Samuel W. McCall was defeated for the Governorship by Gov. Walsh.

Early returns indicated that the Democrats would retain control of Congress with approximately no change in the Senate majority but by a decided reduced majority in the House.

At a late hour results in Illinois, Indiana, California and Colorado as to the senatorship were in doubt.

In Illinois Roger C. Sullivan, who had the indorsement of most administration leaders Secretary of State Bryan excepted, was leading in Chicago and Cook county by a large plurality over Senator L. Y. Sherman Republican and Raymond Robins, Progressive, but Senator Sherman was running ahead in the country districts and was claiming the lection.

Shively Claims Election

Senator Shively, Democrat, found in the Indiana early returns a strong opponent in Hugh Miller, the Republican candidate with former Senator Beveridge, the Progressive candidate, polling a smaller vote than had been expected.

Senator Shiveley's vote began to pick up at a late hour and administration leaders were claiming his re-election.

In Colorado, Senator Charles S. Thomas, Democrat, was being hard pressed by Hubert Work, Republican candidate.

The triumph of Senator Penrose in Pennsylvania over A. Mitchell Palmer, Democrat, who was one of the original supporters of Woodrow Wilson and Gofford Pinchot, Progressive was overwhelming. The Senatorial fight in Kansas also was uncertain, according to early returns. Charles Curtis, former Republican Senator Congressman George A. Neeley, Democrat and Representative Victor Murdock, Progressive, engaged in a spirited contest for the seat of Joseph L. Bristow.

Senators Re-elected as the result of hard battles were Frank B. Brandegee, Republican of Connecticut, opposed by Governor Simeon E. Baldwin; Albert B. Cummins, Republican, of Iowa, who defeated Representative Maurice Connolly; John Walter Smith, Democrat, of Maryland, William J. Stone, Democrat, of Missouri; Jacob H. Gallinger, Republican of New Hampshire, who was opposed by Representatives E. B. Stevens.

South Went Solid

Democratic Senators in the South were re-elected without difficulty new Senators from Southern States chosen being Representative Oscar W. Underwood of Alabama and Representative Thomas W. Hardwick, of Georgia. Former Governor J. W. C. Beckham, (except of Kentucky, was chosen for the long term.

Francis E. Mc Govern, Republican, was elected according to the early returns to succeed Senator Stephenson, Republican, from Wisconsin.

The triumph of former Speaker Joseph G. Cannon, Republican, over Frank T. O'Hair for Representative in the 18th Illinois district seemed certain on the early returns. Other Illinois Republicans who were turned out of the House in the last Democratic landslide who will be returned to Congress are William B. McKinley, Charles E. Fuller and John A. Sterling.

Republicans also made gains in New York, Oscar W. Swift, defeating Representative James H. O'Brien in the Ninth district; Rollin B. Sanford defeating Representative Peter G. Teneyck Walter W. Magee succeeding to the seat of Representative John R. Clancy while R. L. Haskell, Republican, was elected in the Tenth district.

The defeat of Representative Charles A. Korblin, of Indiana, by Merrill Moores also marked the general trend of Republicans throughout the countr Sereno E. Payne, Republican, of New York, one of the oldest members of the House in point of service, was re-elected without difficulty.

Election of State officers resulted in a few turn overs. In New York Governor Glynn, the Democratic candidate for re-election, was defeated decisively by District Attorney Whitman, Republican. Frederick M. Davenport Republican nominee, in support of whose candidacy ex-President Roosevelt decoted most of the campaign, was left far in the rear, his vote being exceeded by William Sulzer, who was deposed as Governor last year.

— Democrats Win In Tennessee.

In Tennessee there also was a change of party control, when Governor Ben W. Hooper, the Republican incumbent, was defeated by Thomas C. Rye, Democrat.

In Pennsylvania, where occurred one of the most spirited campaigns, Martin G. Brumbaugh, Republican, early took a long lead over Vance McCormick, Democratic candidate for Governor, who was endorsed by the Progressives.

In Ohio the race for Governor between James M. Cox, Democratic incumbent, and Frank B. Willis, Republican, was close, with Governor Cox in the lead on early returns.

Governor Hiram W. Johnson, Progressive, leading Fredericks, Republican, and Curtain, Democrat, by a slight margin. The Senatorial situation also was in doubt, Representative Joseph R. Knowland, Republican; Jas. W. Phelan, Democrat, and Francis K. Heney, Prpgressive, all showing strength.

In Ohio the prohibition issue was uppermost. In Cleveland and Dayton "wets" were victorious by large majorities.

SOUTH REMAINS SOLID

Line Up With Democratic Party Complete—Few Changes Made.

Atlanta, Nov. 3.—The South retained its traditional allegiance to the Democratic party in today's elections in the various States. Eight United States senators, all Democrats and six governors were elected.

The only Democratic gubernatorial nominee whose election was not definite assured by the early returns was R. L. Williams, of Oklahoma. These reports showed John Fields his Republican opponent polling a large vote and only a few hundred votes behind Williams. Later reports, however, showed Williams still ahead.

Congressional districts in which the results were left in doubt by the returns available up to midnight included the Eighth and Tenth North Carolina, the Fifth Tennessee, the Eighth Oklahoma and the Third Louisiana.

F. A. Linney, Republican, opposing Representative R. L. Doughton in the Eighth North Carolina, and J. J. Britt, Republican, running against Representative James M. Gudger in the Tenth North Carolina, showed unexpected strength. Both of the present representatives are Democrats.

Representative W. C. Houston, Democrat, of the Fifth Tennessee, was opposed by H. C. Watts and Duke Aydelott, who made the race as Democratic-Independent candidates.

In the Eighth Oklahoma, Representative Dick T. Morgan, Republican, had strong opposition from H. S. Johnston, the Democratic candidate. It was believed, however, that Morgan would retain his lead.

Third Louisiana District.

Much interest attached to the election in the Third Louisiana, where Henry Guydan, Democrat, was opposed by W. P. Martin, Progressive.

The Third district of a beet sugar section and much opposition to the Democratic party developed as a result o fthe removal of the tariff on sugar. Early returns showed Martin leading Guyda ntwo to one.

Only two new senators are in the Southern list, Underwood, of Alabama, and Hardwick, of Georgia. Both have been serving in the house of representatives, Underwood for 20 years and Hardwick for 12.

The last of senators and governors follows:

Alabama—Oscar W. Underwood.
Arkansas—James P. Clarke.
Florida—Duncan U. Fletcher.
Georgia—Hoke Smith and Thomas W. Hardwick.
North Carolina—Lee S. Overman.
Oklahoma—Thomas P. Gore.
South Carolina—Ellison D. Smith.
Alabama—Charles Henderson.
Georgia—Nat E. Harris.
Oklahoma—R. L. Williams or John Ffelds.
South Carolina—Richard I. Manning.
Tennessee—Thomas C. Rye.
Texas—James E. Ferguson.

OVERMAN'S ELECTION SURE

Eight Congressmen Elected by Democrats—Two Districts Are Doubtful.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 3.—Early returns indicate, clearly the election of Lee S Overman to the United States senate, and eight Democratic congressmen, J. H. Shell in first; Claude Kitchin in second; George E. Hood in third; E. W. Pou, in fourth; Charles M. Stedman, in fifth; H. L. Godwin, in sixth; R. N. Page, in seventh, and E. Y. Webb in ninth.

In the eighth the Democrats claim R. L. Doughton is elected, the Republicans making the same claim for F. A. Linney.

In the tenth, the Democrats claim J. M. Gudger's election while the Republicans claim J. J. Britt has won. In both districts it looks as if the official counts will have to decide.

WILSON DOES NOT COMMENT

President Received Returns Over Private Wire at White House.

Washington, Nov. 3.—President Wilson received the election returns at the White House tonight over a special wire. Though he displayed keen interest in many contests he made no comment.

GERMANS HAVE ABANDONED ATTACK ALONG THE COAST

All Reports from Belligerent Nations Agree on That Fact. Germany Claims Conditions of Inundated Country Cause of Retreat, While Opposing Forces Claim She is Driven Back.

STATE OF WAR BETWEEN TURKEY AND THE ALLIES

Russia Apparently Has Welcomed Chance to Let Turkey Apologize, But British Navy Begins Operations Against Turkish Base of Attack Against Egypt and Capture Fortified Town.

London, Nov. 3.—That the German army has abandoned its attempt to hack its way along the Belgian coast to Calais is agreed by all the official reports tonight. A combination of inundated country, the remnant of the Belgian army under King Albert and the activity of the British warships, seemingly all contributed toward ending the costly struggle.

A Berlin official report attributes the failure of the Germans entirely to the flooded state of the country where the water in places is over a man's head; but it declares that Emperor William's army withdrew in good order and without losses.

After nearly three weeks of desperate fighting the brunt of the attack has shifted to the Yser region where the English army of Field Marshal John French, reinforced by Indians and Territorials, apparently, must meet another onslaught. Emperor William has gone to encourage his men according to reports.

A state of war exists between Turkey on the one side and Russia, Great Britain and Servia on the other, yet the Ottoman government appears as a house divided against itself, one section seemingly desiring war while the conservatives are trying to smooth over the situation arising from the attacks on Russian ports and ships by Turkey warships directed by German officers. Russia apparently has welcomed the chance to allow Turkey to draw back while the British cruiser Minerva has smashed the Turkish base of operations against Egypt at the head of the Gulf of Akabah. The Turkish ambassador in London has as yet made no arrangements to leave and the embassy still maintains a conciliatory attitude.

The closing of the North Sea to all shippink except those which places itself under the portection of the British fleet is recognized as the first stroke of Admiral Baron Fisher, the new first sea lord of the admiralty and as one of the most important events of the war. All cargoes destined for German or Austrian consumption must run the gauntlet of British inspection in the English channel, the Strait of Gibraltar or the Suez cannal.

The making of the North Sea a military area already has brought adverse comments from Germany. The Cologne claims that Great Britain virtually has proclaimed a blockade of the North Sea which its fleet will be unable to enforce. The newspapers of Holland also raise objections to the restrictions placed on navigation in theses.

HOLD ALL ENTENTE CITIZENS

Turkish Government Takes That Move to Protect Her Own Citizens

Washington, Nov. 3.—Until definite guarantees are given by Russia, England and France for protection of Turkey subjects, the Ottoman Empire will hold possibly as hostages all the subjects of the triple entente powers within its territory.

This was revealed today in a cablegram from Ambassador Morgenthau dated Constantinoble late Sunday. Assurances already had been given by the British ambassador that Turks in Egypt as well as the British Empire generally would be permitted to leave if they desired. The dispatch indicated however, that the American ambassador who is co-operating with the Italian ambassador, in charge of Russian interests, is confronted with a delicate task. A special train which was to have left Sunday night with panic-stricken British and French subjects was detained by order of the Turkish minister of war. Mr. Morgenthau said he hoped for its release by Monday.

From Persia the American government was informed also today of the spread of the war's influence. Persia, dominated by Russia and Great Britain has shown through popular outbursts its antiphathy toward German subjects. A dispatch from American Minister Caldwell at Teheran, told of an assault on the German consul at Tabriz by Russians, the consul along with other German subjects was extended temporary refuge by American consul Paddock, who is endeavoring to obtain safe conduct for them out of the country.

The Russians in Persia are threatening to arrest all Germans and expel them. That feeling against the Turks similarly is running high was indicated by the fact that the Persian authorities have sent the archives of the Turkish consulate at Tabriz to Petrograd.

IS MORE OF WARNING.

American and Other Neutral Ships Not Denied Right to Sail North Sea.

Washington, Nov. 3.—As interpreted at the State department, the British government's notice that the North Sea had become a field of military operations does not mean that American and other neutral ships are forbidden to enter these waters. It is viewed simply as a warning that ships entering the North Sea do so at their peril.

The offer to provide pilots and sailing directions for such neutral vessels as care to pass through the English channel is not regarded as a mandate, but rather as a caution to neutral shipping.

The British government has promised to supply the state department with a full report upon the conditions under which the Red Star liner Kroonland is detained at Gibraltar, and the department will await the receipt of this report before it decides to follow up its original protest against the detention of the ship. This is irrespective of the proceedings of the prize court, to which the British authorities have referred the case of the Kroonland.

ENTENTE SUBJECTS DETAINED

Turkish Minister of War Orders Special Train Held Up—Cannot Leave Port.

Washington, Nov. 3.—The Turkish minister of war ordered detained a special train bearing British and French subjects from Turkey which Ambassador Morgenthau had arranged on Sunday to leave Constantinople. The minister of war declared that until Turkish subjects in Egypt as well as England and France were given assurances of protection and permitted to leave the country, all British and French subjects would be held in Turkey.

Ambassador Morgenthau cabled the American government that before the British ambassador left he had given Mr. Morgenthau assurances that all Turkish subjects in the British empire would be permitted to leave.

Mr. Morgenthau's latest dispatch dated 5 p. m. Sunday said he had been informed by a member of the Ottoman cabinet of the sinking of two Turkish vessels by the British fleet off the port of Smyrna and of the crossing of Russian troops on the frontier of Erzerun.

The cablegram from the American ambassador revealed that the British, French and Russian ambassadors finally got away from Constantinople on a special train at 12 o'clock midnight Sunday.

DARDANELLES BOMBARDED.

Combined Fleet of British and French Drop Shells on Strongholds.

London, Nov. 3.—The Secretary of the Admiralty announces that a combined British and French squadron bombarded the Dardanelles forts at long range at daybreak this morning. The forts replied but no ships were hit, only one shot falling alongside them. The statement adds that the damage to the forts cannot be estimated but that a great explosion, accompanied by dense volumes of black smoke occurred at the Holles fort.

GERMANS LITTLE DAMAGED

Battle Was Terrific While it Lasted, All Hands Lost.

Santiago, Chile, November 3.—All hands are reported to have perished when the British cruiser Monmouth took her plunge beneath the sea after 30 minutes of fighting with the Germans off Caronel, according to advices received here.

The battle was terrific while it lasted. As darkness gathered the Good Hope seemed to be on fire following a terrible burst of flame which seemed to indicate that an explosion had occurred on board.

The Glasgow is reported to have arrived in a bad condition in Caronel bay. The Otranto escaped to Puerto Montt.

TERRIFIC NAVAL ENGAGEMENT IN SOUTH PACIFIC

German Warships Sink One British Cruiser and Disable Others.

LITTLE DAMAGE DONE TO ATTACKING FLEET.

Taking Place Off the Coast of Chile, Three British Warships and One Cruiser Are Routed by Three German Ships.

Valparaiso, Nov. 3.—Admiral Graf von Snee, commander of the German fleet in Pacific waters, arrived here this morning and made the following report concerning a naval engagement with British warships at sea off Caronel last Sunday evening:

'On Sunday, November 1, between 6 and 7 o'clock in the evening, during a heavy rain and rough weather off Caronel, we sighted the British men-o' war Good Hope, Monmouth and Glasgow and the armored cruiser Otranto.

"An engagement ensued immediately. All the ships opened a brisk cannonade with all their armament.

"The Monmouth was sunk and the Good Hope, after a great explosion on board, took fire. Her subsequent fate is unknown owing to darkness having set in.

"The Glasgow and the Otranto were also odamaged but the darkness prevented our obtaining knowledge of the extent of it.

"Our ships, the Scharnhorst and the Nurnberg, were not damaged. The Gneisenau had six men wounded. The rest of our ships also were undamaged."

REPUBLICAN MAJRRITY IN TENTH INDICATED

Election of Britt for Congress Seems Certain.

Congressman Gudger's Headquarters Refuse to Concede Defeat Until Ballots Are Counted, But Admit Race is Close.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Asheville, N. C., Nov. 3.—James J. Britt, former Third assistant postmaster general, swept the Eenth congressional district today as the nominee of the Republican-Progressive forces for congress, over his Democratic opponent, Congressman James M. Gudger, Jr., carrying 10 of the 13 counties of the district. Returns which are incomplete indicate that Buncombe, Haywood and Rutherford are the only counties which remained Democratic this year. Mr. Britt's majority is estimated at various figures between 700 and 1,000.

Congressman Gudger and his campaign manager, J. Scoop Styles, late tonight refused to concede the election of Mr. Britt, stating that they will await official returns before giving ou tany statement, but at Democratic headquarters tonight it was admdmitted that the "congressional race is very close."

Both Mr. Britt and Mr. Gudger spent election night at Asheville, receiving the returns here.

Earlier Report.

Asheville, N. C., Nov. 3.—That the Tenth congressional district has elected James J. Britt, Republican-Progressive candidate, to the next congress by a majority which ranges from 500 to 700 is indicated by incomplete returns received from a majority of the counties of the district. The headquarters of Congressman James M. Gudger, Jr., Democratic nominee, issued a statement at 12:30 o'clock in which the district is claimed by 500, it being stated that further returns will show heavy losses for Mr. Britt.

Republican-Progressive headquarters claim to have heard from 12 of the 13 counties of the district, and they are claiming Britt's election by 800.

Buncombe, a Gudger stronghold in past elections, has gone for him this year by a greatly decreased majority, while Rutherford, in which he expected to receive another big vote, will give him a majority of less than 50.

FEDERAL TROOPS SENT TO ARKANSAS

To Maintain Order in Coal Mine District.

AID CIVIL OFFICERS

Four Companies Are Sent From Illinois to See That Federal Court Orders Are Obeyed—Men Arrested Taken from Officers

Washington, Nov. 3,—Secretary Garrison today ordered four companies of the Fifth United States cavalry from Fort Sheridan, Illinois, to Fort Smith, Arkansas, for use in maintaining order in the Hartford Valley coal mining strike district. These troops will be commanded by Major Nathaniel F. McClure, who has had experience with heavy troops in the Colorado mining fields. Secretary Garrison, explained the order as follows:

"We have reached the conclusion that it is impracticable to enforce the law and the orders of the United States court in Arkansas by any other means. The court had appointed a receiver for the coal mines, the mines had been blown up and the men who had been arrested charged with the crime had been released from the custody of the United States marshall forcibly by their friends. The United States court had been unable to enforce its processes.

"The troops will not undertake to serve any process, they will confine themselves to making it possible for the civil officers to perform their functions. They will prevent any obstruction in the course of justice. The State has nothing to do with the case".

Major McClure was selected by Secretary Garrison to command the troops because of the manner in which he has discharged his very delicate duties in connection with the protracted mine strike in Colorado.

It was expected the troops would leave Chicago tonight and be at Fort Smith before tomorrow night. About 250 men will be in the command.

HARDING WILL APPEAL TO NEW ENGLAND DIRECT

Bankers There Turn Cold Ear to The South

Are Under Impression That Loan Fund Will Help the South Only—Want to Aid Cotton Mills of Their Own Section.

Washington, Nov. 3.—Direct appeal for subscriptions to the proposed $135,000,000 cotton loan will be made to Boston and New England bankers by W. P. G. Harding, member of the federal reserve board, in acting charge of this fund.

Mr. Harding and Gov. Hamlin of the board were in Boston today endeavoring to interest New England bankers.

Those bankers are said to look upon the plan as peculiarly designed to help only the South and to feel that it is their duty primarily to care for the cotton manufacturers of their section whose interests may not be along the line of maintaining the price of raw cotton.

Mr. Harding, however, was said to be confident that his mission would meet with success.

Reports from other sections of the country to date show that the plan is being approved by bankers and business men. Members of the federal reserve board look upon the proposed aid to cotton producers as a matter which concerns the whole country, and hope that view will be taken in New England.

STEDMAN RE-ELECTED BY 4,225 MAJORITY

Gets 5,025 Votes to Republican Opponent's 800.

Guilford Against Amendments by 600 to 800—Republican Headquarters Claim Eighth and Tenth Districts.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Greensboro, N. C., Nov. 3.—Early returns indicate the re-election of Major Charles M. Stedman to congress by a majority of 4,225, Martin F. Douglas, the Progressive candidate, received a very small vote in the counties heard from. Major Stedman and John T. Benbow, Republican candidate, received majorities estimated as follows:

Stedman—Alamance 450, Caswell 500, Durham 900, Guilford 1,000, Granville 1,100, Orange 225, Person 200, Rockingham 650. Total 5,025.

Benbow—Forsyth 100, Surry 700. Total 800.

Guilford county gave State and county tickets about 100 majority The proposed amendments to the constitution were defeated in this county by about 600 votes, and the seventh amendment by about 800 votes.

Secretary Grisson, of the Republican executive committee, is claiming the election of F. A.Linney for congress in the Eighth and J. J. Britt in the Tenth and gains in the legislature, but he admitted having no responsible figures. Congressman Stedman and county Chairman Sherill assign the amendments as the cause of Democratic losses.

VILLA SATISFIED WITH GUTIERREZ

Pledges Support to Newly Chosen Head.

CARRANZA IS DEFIANT.

Peace Conference Which Adjourned Late Monday Night Does Not Care to Go to Mexico City Until Carranza is Out.

Washington, Nov. 3.—General Villa has pledged allegiance to Eulalio Gutierrez, who was selected as provisional president of Mexico, at the Aguas Calientes convention, according to State Department reports today.

The convention adjourned late last night on receipt of a report from the special committee sent to the capital to inform Carranza of the action of the convention. Suggestions that it reassemble immediately in Mexico City were met with expressions of apprehension by many delegates who feared arrest. If Carranza accepts the decision of the convention, however, the delegates plan to assemble in the capital and administer the oath of office to Gutierrez.

Government officials had no confirmation of the report that Carranza had defied the convention but credited it because of previous indications that he would do so. The Zapatista delegates were reported to have expressed themselves satisfied with the choice of Gutierrez.

Memorandum Issued.

The State Department tonight gave out the following memorandum about Gutierrez based on official reports:

"General Gutierrez is a native of Concepcion del Oro in the state of Zacatecas. He was connected with the Madero revolution before joining in the present disturbance. Under Madero he was attached to the staff of Governor Raphael Cepeda of San Luis Potosi. He voluntarily resigned to return to his private mining business in Concepcion.

"After the overthrow of Madero, Gutierrez revolted against Huerta. He was given the rank of general and confined his activities to the district between Saltillo and San Luis Potosi.

"General Gutierrez is military governor of the state of San Luis Potosi. He is said to have been consistently liberal in politics, in sympathy with the Madero regime and also to have been no-partisan as between General Carranza and General Villa. Gutierrez is looked upon generally by the followers of Villa as representing a wise and satisfactory selection for the provisional presidency."

CARRANZA IS DEFIANT.

Claims He is Still Head of Constitutionalist Forces in Mexico.

Douglas, Ariz., Nov. 3.—General Carranza never sent his resignation to the Aguas Calientes convention, and the message to that effect received there was a telegraphic error, according to a message from Carranza to Benjamin Hill, his commander in Sonora.

Carranza asserted he still was the head of the Constitutionalist army and notified Hill that he would expect him to execute his orders. What he did say to the convention Carranza declared was that he was "willing to become an exile from Mexico providing the same treatment were accorded to Villa and Zapata."

A message to Hill from his delegate at the convention, Julio Madero, today, said it was now almost certain the retirement of Governor Maytorena of Sonora, General Obregon and General Pablo Gonzales would be demanded, leaving all the military forces under command of the new provisional president.

The elimination of Zapata, Madero said, would be discussed soon at a meeting to be attended by all delegates from the southern portion of Mexico.

VILLA AWAITS RESULTS.

Will Not Lead His Troops Further South Until Carranza Decides.

Mexico City, Nov. 3.—General Villa, whose troops yesterday occupied Aguas Calientes where the Constitutionalist peace convention is in session, said today he had no immediate intention of moving his forces further south.

The convention voted to adjourn to Mexico City, but it is said the delegates will not be permitted to leave Aguas Calientes until Carranza has resigned.

Carranza is at Puebla where he has been received with much enthusiasm by the populace. He is expected to return to the Federal capital today or tomorrow when Generals Obregon and Cabral will meet him as a committee from the peace convention.

CALL ON MEXICANS TO DRIVE AMERICANS OUT

Mexico City, Nov. 3.—When it became generally known today that the Washington government had failed to comply with the request of the Mexican foreign office that the United States fix a definite date for the exacuation of Vera Cruz, Mexican Scottish Rite Masons printed thousands of proclamations calling upon the citizens to arm themselves and drive the invading foreigners from the shores of Mexico.

READY TO LEAVE

Troops Will Entrain Early Today for Arkansas Mining District

Chicago, Nov. 3—Four troops of the Fifth United States cavalry at Fort Sheridan were ready today to leave early tomorrow for Fort Smith, Ark., to maintain order in the Hartford Valley coal strike district. Major Nathaniel F. McClure, who has been with troops in the Colorado mine districts, will be in command. The machine gun detachment will be part of the equipment.

About 260 men comprise the four troops.

DEMOCRATS CARRY STATE BY 40, 000

Dr. S. A. Smith, for coroner, 50 votes; Republican, L. Baggett, four.

LITTLE INTEREST IN WILSON

Democratic Ticket Safe Despite Lethargy—Banks Closed

(Special Star Correspondence)

Wilson, Nov. 3.—With very little manifested interest in the election, the only visible sign being the closing of the banks, there is no doubt at 2 P. M. of the election of the entire democratic ticket. The opposition is practically nominal. Telephone reports at this hour from the county show the same lethargy. The county will re-elect S. G. Mewborn, clerk of the Superior court, John S. Thompson, treasurer, John R. Dildy, register of deeds, and Howard M. Rowe sheriff. The following members of the board of county commissioners will be elected beyond any doubt: Walter F. Woodard, John H. Forbes, William L. Shelton, Nathaniel Kirby and Henry B. Lane.

There is no opposition in this county to Senators T. M. Washington and R. H. White and Solicitor R. G. Allsbrook The democratic nominee for the House of Representative, John L. Bailey will be elected. Wilson County will vote in favor of the amendments, cast its vote for Senator Overman and Congressman Kitchin and the nominees for State officers as nominated by the democrats.

SAMPSON REPUBLICANS GAIN

Democrats Apathetic—Amendments Defeated by Probably 2,000

(Special Star Telegram)

Clinton, N. C., Nov. 3.—Incomplete returns from the sixteen voting precincts of Sampson county indicate that the average Republican majority will be at least twelve hundred. This is an increase over last election, due to apathy among the people on account of the low price of cotton.

The majority against the constitutional amendments will probably reach two thousand. The tax and six months school propositions were defeated by a much greater majority than the others. There was a good deal of scratching on both sides, growing out of differences of opinion on the stock law. Good feeling prevailed throughout the county and no disorder of any kind is reported from any precinct.

CRAVEN FOR AMENDMENTS

Democratic Tickets Receive 1,000 Majority, Except Hood

(Special Star Telegram)

Newbern, N. C., Nov. 3.—Practically complete returns from Craven give the Democrats a majority of 1,000 votes The voting was very light.

The amendments carried by a majority of about six hundred.

Considerable interest was manifested in the State and county tickets and they received a good vote. The Congressional nominee ran slightly behind the ticket, not receiving the full vote by more than a hundred. The Republicans seemed to take but little interest in the election.

VOTE LIGHT IN WILSON.

Democrats Poll Less Than Half Usual Vote—Amendments Carry.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Wilson, N. C., Nov. 3.—Democratic lethargy in this county today resulted in a Democratic vote of 726 as against 1,500 two years ago, while the Republicans polled 227 votes as compared with 300 in 1912. The Democratic county, State and congressional ticket is elected by a majority of close to 500, while the normal majority is about 1,500. In Toisnot township, his home, John L. Bailey, Democratic nomines for the Legislature, ran 40 votes behind his ticket. Four townships in the county went Republican. In several townships, Congressman Kitchin ran behind the county ticket.

Correct figures cannot be had in reference to the amendments, but, according to telephonic reports, all amendments were ratified by small majorities. There was much scratching of the amendments.

LETHARGY IN LENOIR.

Vote Very Light—Kitchin Re-Elected by 8,000 to 10,000 Majority.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Kinston, N. C., Nov. 3.—Lethargy characterized the election in Lenoir county because of the fact that there was practically no opposition. The total vote of all three parties was not more than the usual Democratic vote. This is the statement of County Chairman Cowper.

Congressman Claud Kitchin will probably carry the Second district by nine or ten thousand majority, W. O. Dixon, his Republican opponent, concedes Kitchin 8,000 majority.

Despite stock law dissensions, Duplin county remains safely Democratic.

Jones and Onslow counties will give the usual Democratic majorities.

Sampson county will give a decreased Republican majority.

Not all returns are available tonight.

CLEAN SWEEP IN LEE

Democratic Majorities About 200. Amendments Defeated.

Special Star Telegram.)

Sanford, N. C., Nov. 3.—Lee county elects the entire Democratic ticket: For house of representatives, A. A. F. Seawell; clerk, T. N. Campbell; sheriff, D. E. Lasater; register, Ralph Monger; treasurer, J. W. Knott; surveyor, Francis Deaton; coroner, Dr. E. M. McIver; county commissioner, J. N. Willcox, J. J. Edwards, T. A. Riddle, A. R. Rosser and H. H. Williams; for State senate, C. L. Williams and J. R. Barber. Democratic candidates' majority in Lee county about 200 votes. O. P. Makepeace, for highway commissioner, in West Sanford township, is elected by six mapority over Hugh Palmer. Independent, State and congressional tickets carried by 200 to 300 majorty.

Indications are that amendments are defeated; complete returns not in.

PAMLICO FOR AMENDMENTS

Vote Very Light, But Democratic Tickets Are Safe.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Bayboro, N. C. (via Newbern), Nov. 3.—Incomplete returns from all parts of the county show the Democratic majority in this county to be about 300. The voting was unusually light.

The amendments carried nicely with but a few votes against them.

Hood for congress received a good vote, as did all of the State and county officers. An independent ticket was rushed in at the last moment but this suffered an overwhelming defeat.

CARRY IN ROCKINGHAM.

Amendments Get 50 Majority—Democratic Majority Reduced.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Reidsville, N. C., Nov. 3.—Rockingham is Democratic by about 400, a reduced majority on account of the light vote.

The amendments carry by a small majority. Caswell is Democratic by the usual majority.

ONSLOW FOR AMENDMENTS.

But Few Negative Votes—Democratic Majorities Gratifying.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Jacksonville (via Newbern), Nov. 3.—The vote in Onslow was not as light as had been expected and the Democrats piled up a majority of more than 300.

The amendments carried nicely and but few votes were cast against them.

It looks as though the salary system was assured for this county.

The State and county officers received a straight vote. The Republicans suffered a defeat but it was not more than they had expected.

VOTE FOR AMENDMENTS.

Early Returns from Craven, Pamlico, Onslow, Carteret Favorable.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Newbern, N. C., Nov. 3.—Returns coming in early from Craven and Pamlico counties show the largest votes for the amendments, Onslow and Carteret also give a large vote.

ONSLOW COUNTY MEN GO TO U.S. PENITENTIARY

Lee and W. W. Hardesty Taken to Atlanta

Newbern to Have Municipal Christmas Tree—Oysters Rather Scarce—Scottish Rite Re-Union—Tobacco Sales Large

(Special Star Correspondence)

Newbern, Nov 3.—Lee and W. W. Hardesty of Onslow county who were last week convicted before Judge H. G. Cornor on a charge of operating an illicit distillery and sentenced to serve terms of 12 and 18 months in the Federal prison at Atlanta, Ga., will be taken today to Atlanta to begin serving their sentence.

An unusual phase of this case came to light yesterday when Deputy Marshal C. H. Ange told of searching the prisoners before placing them in the county jail after sentence had been passed. Snugly tucked away in Lee Hardesty's hip pocket was a quart of "monkey rum", or better known as white lighting. Hardesty had this with him all during his trial and is supposed to have partaken freely right under the eyes of the court. The Hardestys are two of the most notorious blockaders in this part of the State and the Federal authorities have been on their trail for several months.

While the occasion is several weeks distant plans are already under way to have a municipal Christmas tree in Newbern during the approaching yuletide season. Last year New Bern was among the few cities in the State which had one of these trees and it proved to be a complete success in every way. The tree was erected under the supervision of a number of the ladies who taken an active part in the progress and development of the city and already they are making plans to erect the tree again. The tree will in all probability be placed at the corner of Broad and Middle streets, right in the business district of the city and where it will be seen by the thousands who throng that section during the holiday season.

N. A. Deaton, a young printer whose home is at Cherryville, N. C., and who is employed with the E. J. Land Printing Company, had a narrow escape from death or fatal injury last night when he was thrown from a street car on Craven street. Mr. Deaton desired to get off the car at a certain point and claims to have rung the bell for the motorman to stop. For some reason the car was not brought to a stop and in attempting to alight from it the young man was thrown to the pavement. In striking the pavement Mr. Deaton's right shoulder was dislocated and he received numerous other bruises.

Although the oyster season was officially opened in New Bern two months ago, the quantity and quality of the bivalves being recieved here at present is far from being all that could be desired. Oyster dredgers claim that the supply is not large and that as the oysters are not very fat they are taking no more of them from the beds than they can readily dispose of to the local dealers. By the latter part of this month it is believed that they bivalves will have improved in quality and that the demand for them will be larger.

New Bern Consistory No. 3, Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry is making preparations for the fall reunion which is to be held in this city at the Masonic Temple on November 10 to 12. Degrees from the fourth to the thirty-second will be conferred and a large number of Masons from all parts of the State are expected to be present and participate in the reunion. In addition to the business which will be attended to during these three days, care has been taken to arrange a social program which will be of interest to every visiting Mason. This included a banquet at the temple on Wednesday, November 11th and other events.

Large quantities of tobacco continue to be disposed of on the New Bern market each week and the proprietors of the tobacco warehouse are more than pleased with the sales. Reports from Vanceboro are to the effect that the sales at that place are also large. This is the first season that the local warehouse has been in operation and the record so far made is a most creditable one. The acreage planted in tobacco by the farmers of this county, was comparatively small but present indications point to the fact that this will be increased next year.

EDGECOMBE COUNTY FAIR HAS GREAT OPENING DAY

Large Crowds and Better Exhibits Than Ever—Races and Flights

(Special Star Telegram)

Tarboro, N. C., Nov. 3.—The first day of the Edgecombe County Fair closed here this evening after one of the biggest days in the history of the county. Crowds from all over Eastern North Carolina poured into the city from an early hour this morning and late trains brought in many more for the rest of the week.

The exhibits are splendid, especially the live stock and cotton showing. In every line there was seen great improvement over last year and in a number of entries in every department. The first day was a great success.

Only one harness race was held today. Winners in it are as follows:

Blossom Wilkes, Onward Bell, Cuba Dillon and Mary Barber, in order, for $300 purse. A mule race was also a feature.

The greatest attraction was two aeroplane flights by William S. Lukey, in a Curtis biplane, this feature being something entirely new to the people of this section.

The aviator handled his machine with the greatest ease and lived up to his reputation as one of the steadiest airmen now giving exhibition flights. The fair will last through November 6th.

MACHINE SKIDDED AND COLLIDED WITH POLE

New Jersey Tourist Seriously Injured Near Raleigh—Wife Hurt

(Special Star Telegram)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 3—A. J. Marshall, of Newberlin, N. J., is in a serious condition in Rex Hospital here from an automobile accident in which his machine skidded and collided with a telephone pole just beyond the city. He and Mrs. Marshall were motoring to Jacksonville, Florida. One of her hands was badly lacerated. Marshall probably has internal injuries and his jaw bone was dislocated.

LITERARY SOCIETY ELECTS OFFICERS

Hesperian Society at Trinity Ballots on New Leaders—Indication.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Trinity College, N. C., October 31.—At the regular meeting of the Hesperian Literary society of Trinity College, tonight, officers of the society for the second quarter of the collegiate year were elected and installed.

Previous to the election, E. K. Summers and Jim McGinn were elected to membership in the society, and duly initiated into the secrets and rights of the organization. The remainder of the regular socety program, the debates and orations were omitted, thereby making the meeting as short as possible in order to give the members an opportunity to attend the Hallowe'en party to be given at the Southern Conservatory of Music tonight.

The officers elected to serve the society during the present quarter are: President, W. I. Wooten; vice president, R. C. Goforth; critic, J. W. Carr, Jr.; secretary, C. B. Dunn; on the executive committee, M. F. Morgan, A. R. Anderson; chairman, W. R. Shelton; treasurer, J. W. Wallace; monitor, Alex Worthy, and chapalin, Fred Safford.

The retiring officers were: President, J. W. Carr, Jr.; vic epresident, B. F. Taylor; critic, M. F. Morgan; chairman executive committee, W. I. Wooten; secretary, P. N. North; treasurer, J. W. Wallace; monitor, C. S. Bunn; chaplain, W. R. Shelton.

Trinity College, N. C., Nov. 3.—The first game of interclass series of basketball games to be played off here this fall were played in the Angier Duke gymnasium tonight between 7 and 9 o'clock. The series opened with a doubleheader, Seniors vs. Freshmen, Juniors vs. Sophomores. The showing up of the four teams was exceptionally good, a fact which undoubtedly must be attributed to the hard work which the men have been doing this fall in preparation for the season. The playing was clean all the way through, roughness being almost negative.

The Seniors and Freshmen took the floor first, the Senios defeating their opponents by the score of 42 to 16. At the end of the first half the score stood 12 to 10 in the Seniors' favor, and it seemed very probable that the Freshmen might give the Seniors a tight race, but they soon gave way and the rest of the game was a walf-over for the Seniors. Anderson did the stellar work for the winners, while Sholar, the fast freshman guard from Wilmington, piled up the greatest number of scores for his team.

In the game between the Juniors and Sophomores, Patton and Matton did the best work, making possible their overwhelming score with their opponents, 27 to 11.

WILSON FARMER FRIGHTENED BY AN UNSIGNED LETTER

Mr. George Hughes Leaves Home and Whereabouts Now Unknown.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Wilson, Nov. 3.—Frightened by threats contained in an unsigned letter, Mr. George Hughes, a farmer living on the farm of Mr. Isaac Lamm, in Cross Roads township, has left home and his whereabouts are unknown.

This incident comes as a sequel to the attempted forceable arrest of Ben Davis by two men, Powels, who were acting under the alleged authority of a requisition issued by the governor of Georgia. Davis was charged with the murder of a man in Georgia several years ago and fter the trouble there came back here and has since the time lived quietly in this county. The Powells found him and working for the reward went to his house and attempted to arrest him. They asked Mr. Hughes to accompany them, the wife of Mr. Hughes being a sister to the Powells. To his friends later Mr. Hughes stated that he did not know the purpose of the visit to the Davis home.

Davis was take nto Fremont by the Powells and later released. The old man had a number of friends in his section and they were very much stirred by the arrest and it is alleged that they have frightened Mr. Hughes. The notice he received gave him 20 days in which to gather his crop and leave, but he left immediately, deserting his family.

SOIL SURVEY OF COLUMBUS COUNTY STARTS IN DECEMBER

Washington, D. C., Oasis of the United States, It is Said.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Washington, D.C., Nov. 3.—A soil survey of Columbus county will be started by the department of agriculture early in December and it is expected to be completed by the first of April. Because of the earnest request of Representative H. L. Godwin, the department made an exception in this case and will rush the work to completion. The department seldom starts work of this kind in the winter season, and would not do so in this case but for the high esteem in which they hold the Sixth district congressman.

Washington is the oasis of the United States. It is the only city in America where a thirsty wayfarer can get what our North Carolina gentlemen call a "dram." That is, there may be a few places where "firewater" is being served behind closed doors, but the only place where you can get an honest, "cross-your-heart" drink today is Washington, D. C. Judging from the appearance of some of our leading citizens Washington people are not overlooking any bets. P. R. A.

AGED NEGRO KILLED.

Lenoir County Black Crushed to Death by Falling Tree.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Nov. 3.—Willis Forbes, an aged negro, was killed by a falling tree near there, according to a news report from Winterville today. The black, who was upward of 75 years of age, was engaged in hauling logs in the timber woods. Forbes had made several trips with loads of logs to a mill during the day and becoming weary, stopped to rest on a stump near where choppers were engaged upon a big tree. The usual halloo was given as the big stick was about to fall, but Forbes did not hear it. No one was aware of his presence, and the tree fell upon him, killing him instantly. The woodsmen had no knowledge of the accident until they removed the trunk to cut it into logs and found the bruised body beneath it.

FROM KINSTON TO NEUTRAL PORTS NEAR WAR ZONE.

Big Shipment of Bright Leaf Tobacco on the Way Now.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Nov. 3.—A big shipment of fine bright leaf tobacco is now en route from here to neutral ports near the war zone in Europe. The destination is not made public. In one consignment were 130 hogsheads of especially good quality tobacco. Most of this immense quantity, there is reason to believe, will find its way to consumers on the firing lines.

WILSON NEWS NOTES.

Mr. E. J. Barnes Elected Judge of County Court—Several Amendments.

Wilson, Nov. 3.—E. J. Barnes was elected judge of the county court at the session of the board of county commissioners, in the stead of Judge Deans, whose term expired last month. County Solicitor F. D. Swindell was re-elected and in addition to his duties he was appointed county attorney.

Messrs. G. T. Lamm and W. H. Thompson, both of Lucama, were painfully injured yesterday when the horse they were driving became frightened and ray away. The accident occurred at Five Points. The buggy was demolished.

R. M. Hartley, attempting to save his mule from being killed by a passenger train on the Atlantic Coast Line, was struck by the engine and suffered serious injuries. The accident was at Stoney Creek and Mr. Hartley was brought here and given medical attention.

The colored Methodist church, an old frame building on Fender street, was burned Sunday, the fire starting from a defective flue. The congregation has already a fund of $2,500 for a new building and this with the insurance on the old building gives them a good start. They have been at work for some time on plans for the new building but did not intend erecting it this fall.

Buy cotton bags.

Turkey seems to be willing to apologise for acting like a goose.

What a man learns by hanging around down town never makes him a learned man.

A lecturer insists that militarism is responsible for the war in Europe. What, then, is responsible for so much militarism?

The Boston city authorities have decided to compel chorus girls to put on more clothes. Why not pass an ordinance compelling them to wear cotton.

A man may forget to mail a letter the home folks are anxious for him to post as soon as he gets down town, but he never fails to remember the date for a smoker at which he is expected to be all sorts of a jolly good fellow.

The estate of a Philadelphia carpet manufacture, recently scheduled foots up $14,000,000 in personal property. The greatest wealth and the greatest growth in the country is found in the manufacturing centers. Let Wilmington take notice.

While digging up the earth in Exchange alley, New York City, workmen unearthed a cannon of the 1695-1783 period. To shoot a man with that kind of a cannon now would make him so mad he would tumble it over and drive a wire nail in the "touch hole".

It is to be hoped you voted yesterday. No citizen ought to be an indifferent one. Neither should he be guilty of overconfidence. A small vote in North Carolina would be a reproach to her Democracy, yet it would not indicate a thing but confidence in the result anyhow.

The more active cotton oil market shows that conditions are improving in the South. New York reports a larger volume of transactions in oil at increased prices, because free offerings of crude oil have been checked by a better financial outlook in the South. Good. That is a straw.

When an old fashioned Democrat went to vote yesterday he made sure that he voted for every one of the party nominees. He declared that ne would vote for a yellow dog on the Democratic ticket rather than for his opponent, for the reason that the dog would always follow the right trail.

A Wilmington man claims that he was hard pressed on his right wing on account of being absent from his office but finally he claims that he gained new ground at home by explaining that he had to go to the polls and vote for Woodrow Wilson. He was checked off with an O. K. by everybody at home.

An act of gallantry is attributed to German soldiers who ceased firing on a French regiment when they found out that its colonel was celebrating his birthday. What a fine idea it would be for the officers on both sides to celebrate their birthdays and keep it up every minute so firing could cease for good all along the line. "For good" is right.

What has become of the idea that war in Europe would cause millions of money to be hurried to the United States for safe keeping? On the contrary, Europe seems to need all its own money, and all it can get from the United States and every other country. London and New York seem to be running a race in acquiring gold reserves.

The New York World remarks: "The appeal to buy a bale of cotton might be well addressed to the cotton mill interests of this country, if they propose to make the most of their trade opportunities." That is what's the matter with cotton. Those who ought to buy are not buying. They are pursuing a "watchful waiting" policy and watching for opportunities in their own way.

HOW ABOUT THE BULL MOOSE?

The election yesterday marks the beginning of the new political battle to be fought out for the Presidency during the next two years, to be decided in November, 1916. The strength to be shown in this election by the Republicans and Bull Moosers will show whether Colonel Roosevelt's followers will be strong enough to keep up a party organization or whether the Bull Moosers have gradually gone back to the G. O. P. and will allign with it in 1916.

Colonel Roosevelt has made a fight simply to keep his hat in the ring and the result of yesterday's election will decide whether he will lead a party during the next two years or fall in with the Republican party under its new rules of organization. Under the new plan he may be able to capture the G. O. P. during the next two years.

Colonel Roosevelt claims that he was cheated out of the nomination at Chicago in 1912 by manipualtion of the Republican delegations from the non-Republican Southern States. Nevertheless, the Southern delegates were loyal Republican representatives and they followed the general rule of them all to stick to the administration. At Chicago in 1912, it was a question of repudiating the Taft administration by voting for Roosevelt's nomination, and so they stuck to Taft.

During the next Presidential campaign, however, the Republican party will go into the fight with a new apportionment of Southern delegates to the national convention. National Chairman Hilles announces that Southern representation has been cut down and that all the State Republican organizations in the South, except Texas, we believe, have ratified the action of the National Republican committee in reducing the number of Southern representatives in the next convention by 89.

Colonel Roosevelt claims that it was the Southern delegations which beat him for the nomination in 1912, claiming that he was defrauded and steamrolled in the face of what he contends was the overwhelming sentiment of the Republican States of the North and West. It caused the G. O. P. to split asunder with Colonel Roosevelt making himself the head and presidential nominee of the new Progressive party. It seems that the revolt from the G. O. P. has had the desired effect of forcing the G. O. P. to cut down Southern representation.

That has been attempted at different times. As long ago as the Republican national convention in 1880 the late Senator Matt Quay, of Pennsylvania, made a fight against the disproportionate representation given to non-Republican States. Nevertheless, the body of delegates to the convention always successfully fought down any new apportionment that would give the cold shoulder to loyal Southern Republicans. Now the deed is done. Republicans have been hoping that this election will eliminate Roosevelt. We shall see by the result to be known in detail in a day or so.

PLANS TO INVADE AMERICA.

In a speech a few days ago, Colonel Roosevelt urged militarism in this country so it could be ready for war if it should come. He even preyed upon the apprehensions of his audience by declaring that it was not unlikely that some one or more nations might jump on us. The Philadelphia Record reminds the Colonel that instead of making political capital out of it on the stump he should make his discoveries known to the Navy and War Departments and thus save the country. The Record pointedly remarks:

"If Colonel Roosevelt knows all about the plans of foreign nations for seizing New York and San Francisco he ought to get in touch with the War and Navy departments, instead of trying to make capital of his information on the political stump. It will be hard to scare the United States with this warlike yarn. Mr. Roosevelt should be more explicit if he really wishes to arouse his countrymen to a proper appreciation of a great impending danger."

We guess the two plans "seen" by the Colonel were in books written by strategists. They were supposing a case of war and outlining how we could be attacked. In all probability their military authorities would not even approve what are only theories on the part of writers who are more theorists than strategists.

WILL SOON OPEN THE NEW YORK COTTON EXCHANGE.

A Washington special to the New York Journal of Commerce states that by extending a loan of a little over $10,000,000 to the members of the New York Cotton Exchange, by the banks of New York, "it is hoped to complete the arrangements for the opening of the exchange soon after November 16."

It is also understood in Washington that an agreement has been reached whereby the Liverpool bankers will extend a similar loan to the cotton brokers in Liverpool, thereby permitting both English and American cotton exchanges to open at the same time.

It seems to be quite probable that both exchanges will soon be opened and we shall see whether the exchanges affect the cotton market or whether the cotton market affects the exchanges. As we see it, the banks in New York and Liverpool will lend brokers money to gamble in cotton, or bet on the price. It is by no means sure that the borrowers will be bulls or whether they will be bears. We can't see how borrowers of $10,000,000 in New York or London can help the price of spot cotton by betting on the price. They do not reduce the supply of cotton by their betting, but as a matter of fact the cotton in sight will regulate their bets as well as the price of actual cotton.

The one thing that will help the price of cotton will be the opening of the markets for cotton. When cotton begins to move the price will move, but with 15,000,000 or 16,000,000 bales of cotton in sight, unsold and waiting for a market, we are not able to see how the bulls could put up the price of cotton while there is no demand for actual cotton. In fact, it is history that while the bulls bet high and went broke on options, actual cotton sold at a low price, regardless of their bets. The bears bet low because their judgment was that the price would be low for the reason that the supply of actual cotton was greater than the demand. The history of transactions on the exchanges will show that supply and demand for actual cotton finally fixes the price of options as well as spots. It follows by no means that cotton will be high or low because there are bears who bet low and bulls who bet high.

BUSINESS AND THE OUTLOOK.

While we are not exporting any large amount of cotton, the other export business of the country has been so large that the balance of trade is largely in our favor. The financial press agrees that our export business continues to grow rapidly and that it is creating a trade balance which will settle all matters of exchange. If it keeps up Europe will owe us a balance and we will not have to send that $200,000,000 to $300,000,000 of gold to Europe to settle American security obligations there.

However, there may be continued hampering of our foreign trade by the belligerents who are continually enlarging their lists of contraband commodities. They even make contraband or conditional contraband of American shipments to neutral countries. It will be difficult to do business with the neutrals if the belligerents insist on interfering with our commerce with them. Yet that is a condition we cannot very well control, since everything possible is being done by this country to avoid friction that will in any way involve the United States in the troubles of European nations.

The continual improvement in the financial situation in London and New York is bound to help business before long.

CURRENT COMMENT.

If any mill in this country is prepared to make strong material for clothes at a fair price the manager need only remember that five million men in Europe are wearing out their clothes as well as their lives and when the orders come they will be for rush delivery as well as in great quantities.—Jacksonville Times-Union.

There are now more than 3,000 bales of cotton stored and bonded in Rowland besides as much more ginned and being held by the farmers in two or three miles around. Besides this, much cotton remains in the fields unpicked, while something like 1,500 bales have already been sold and shipped away. Rowland will handle this season fully 10,000 bales.—Rowland (N. C.) Sun.

With Germany and Austria-Hungary cut off, American exports for the last week in October were the greatest since March. Compared with last year, the total was up $90,000,000. Some startling items are shown in a review of a longer period. Wheat exports for three months ending September 30 were the largest on record. In September we sent 2,500,000 bushels to Canada; and the exports of refined sugar were 13 times as great as last year, of corn twice as great, of oats 34 times, of rice 7 times. Cotton exports will soon be almost normal, going even to Germany by way of Italy. In these circumstances our gold debt to Great Britain is for the most part, at least, like a letter—leave it alone and it answers itself.—New York World.

Don't hang too long at the telephone ordering a nickel's worth of stuff. Imagine that another person is standing within five feet of the grocer, impatiently to buy a dollar's worth. Telephone talk should be brief and definite, especially when dealing with a dealer. Don't think you are the only important person in the universe, there are others. Of course, the telephone is useful, and sometimes necesary, but it should never rule out the market basket, hiking over to the grocer, getting what you want and carrying it home. There are exercise, economy, cheerfulness, honest work, self-respect and a happy mingling with the world in this little habit, and they are all the shining summits of human experience. And what is more, that old sick headache, nervous prostration, and fashionable ennui will gradually let go of your being and slink away. —Ohio State Journal.

Writing in the Louisville Home and Farm Mr. George T. Kearsley, of Pineview, this State, says he came to North Carolina attracted by the delightful climate, nearness to Northern markets and cheap lands. It was a surprise to him, he wrote, to find for sale here at five dollars an acre, land on which there could be raised $250 worth of tobacco. But he said he was still more surprised to actually see and know a man, and his land and crop, who cleared $508 on one acre of dewberries. North Carolina is indeed a State of surprises. Land can be bought at surprisingly reasonable prices and it can be made to produce surprising yields. What North Carolina needs is more men like Mr. Kearsley, men who will come into the State and by intensive farming followed along scientific lines help in making the State's broad and fertile acres productive up to their limit.—Raleigh News and Observer.

The representation of Mr. John M. Miller, Jr., at the meeting of Charlotte bankers Saturday night in the matter of the cotton relief pool, localized the proposition in a manner which should hold the attention of the bankers in North Carolina, for in plain terms, the sum of $15,000,000 is placed at the use of these two States if they care to make use of it. This money is to be loaned direct and the plan upon which it will be made available was worked out especially to suit the conditions in the cotton States. What is more important, this money would be almost immediately available to the cotton interests of the two States. Within 10 days loans from this fund could be made and all know that what is needed most at the present time is relief now, rather than in the future. The details of the loan plan were given in Sunday's Observer and are commended to the consideration of the bankers. It resolves into the simple proposition that if the banks in the two States want money with which to help finance the cotton situation the opportunity to get it is at hand. It would seem that in co-operation of the loan relief with the reserve banks the Southern bankers should see the way to help this section entirely out of the situation developed in the cotton market.—Charlotte Observer.

Barbed wire was invented for the purpose of making horses and cattle respect wire fences. Joseph F. Glidden, a former of De Kalb, Ill., made the first barbed wire. It is hardly likely he foresaw to what uses it would be put, other than the one he made it for. But anybody who has ever been so unfortunate as to be tangled up in a barbed wier fence can imagine what a terribly effective barrier it would be to a charging army if instead of the one fence of three or four strands of wire there was a series of fences close together and connected with each other in a perfect maze of wire. That is the sort of barriers each army has been placing in the enemy's way in the fighting in Europe. Some of the most awful horrors of the war have resulted when cavalry or even infantry came suddenly into a wire entanglement and while being gashed by its barbs received the fire of the enemy. A correspondent near the front reports that officers have said of the barriers: "The devil never invented anything nastier."—Savannah News.

A letter in Sunday's Observer by Ida Clyde Clark on the situation of the missions in Brazil was one which should not have escaped the attention of any reader of the paper. It was of absorbing interest as drawing a parallel in the coffee situation in Brazil with the cotton situation in the cotton States, the causes bringing about these conditions being the same—all coffee in the one and all cotton in the other. Brazil had been over-cropped in coffee before the European war and had negotiated a loan of $25,000,000 from English capitalists to finance the marketing of the crop. At the critcal time the war broke out, the money was made unavailable and Brazil had no market for its coffee. The condition precipitated upon Brazil was precisely similar to that in which the South found itself. Brazil is paying the penalty of the all-coffee crop and is preach the doctrine of diversification. The similarity in conditions may be further drawn out. Through lack of a market the Brazilian coffee merchant finds himself in the same "fix" and from the same cause as the Southern cotton manufacturer.—Charlotte Observer.

APPEAL FOR A NOBLE CHARITY.

To the Editor of The Star:

It is now about ten years since the establishment of the visiting nurse work in Wilmington. As this work is so far reaching and of such public character, it seems fitting that some account of it should appear from time to time in The Star. The visiting nursing in Wilmington is carried on under the supervision of the ministering circle of the King's Daughters, a circle of about 40 members. The very able executive committee for the last two years was composed of the following ladies: Mrs. George P. Cotchett, president; Mrs. F. W. Dick, vice president; Mrs. M. A. Curtis, secretary; Mrs. Theodore G. Empie, treasurer, and Mrs. W. A. Dick, executive officer.

The work is progressing steadily and satisfactorily. The visiting nurse, Mrs. Hannah, R. N., is in constant communication with the ministers and physicians in the city, informing herself of the sick poor in our midst. During the past summer, Mrs. Hannah gave faithful and efficient service to many families. In June her report shows 162 visits, July 280 visits, August 215 visits. These visits were for various causes; 12 severe cases of typhoid demanded constant watching, several of these were in particularly unsanitary surroundings, nine of these patients recovered from the typhoid fever. One case of hook worm, almost the worst on record, is now being helped by the trained nurse. Already, the employment of the working men is decreasing and if this continues, undoubtedly there will be much suffering and sickness during the winter.

Wherever Mrs. Hannah goes, she is warmly welcomed by the sick, and because of her professional training and sympathetic nature, she has given encouragement and real help to many in times of distress. Quite often her visits are of an educational character, such an instructions as to the proper way of giving a bath to a sick person, the necessity of keeping the patient's room clean, the proper food for sick babies.

In this connection, the nurse has discovered that the ignorance among some mothers she has visited is distressing. Any one in touch with this visiting nurse work realizes its importance in preventing the increase of sickness among our poorer citizens. They have shown themselves appreciative of this help, which is given them without any cost whatsoever, and often the improved condition in the homes is very evident.

Since the establishment of this municipal charity, however, Wilmington has grown considerably, until the work to be done exceeds the ability of one nurse, and the income of the ministering circle is inadequate to meet any extension. There is, therefore, great need for an assistant nurse, to help in the extreme northern and southern parts of the city. Also, there is crying need for a colored trained nurse for the colored people. No work is more needed than this for creating better conditions of living among the colored people. At present, this field is almost untouched, except in cases of tuberculosis, when aid is given by the Red Cross society, through its capable trained colored nurse, Anna Bentley.

It can readily be seen that the visiting nurse work deserves the aid and encouragement of Wilmington's citizens generally.

The expenses of maintaining the visiting nurse are about $1,000 a year. This amount is raised almost entirely through the efforts of the ministering circle of King's Daughters, and it is earnestly hoped that the hearts of Wilmington's kindly citizens will respond to the appeals for this worthy charity, which may be made during the winter, as generously as they have in former years.

Any subscriptions for this cause may be sent to the treasurer, Mrs. Theodore G. Empie, 309 Ann street.

VOTE IN NEW HANOVER LIGHTEST IN YEARS

Good Majorities Constitutional Amendments

No Upsets Shown by Returns—Cooper's Majority Over Davis in County Was 638—Error in Printing Tickets.

A vote of considerably less than 50 per cent. of the normal for the county is indicated by complete returns from all save two remote country precincts, and the results show the usual Democratic majorities proportionately in the general election of yesterday. The constitutional amendments carried in New Hanover by majorities of over 500 in every instance. The returns on the regular ticket show no upsets of any kind.

With Federal Point and Seven Mile Post precincts yet to hear from, the complete vote cast for the congressional candidates was 838, and the two country precincts will hardly bring the total up to 900. With the normal vote of the county somewhere around 2,900 or 2,000, New Hanover has probably suffered considerably in her representation in the various district conventions, which is based on the total vote cast in the general election.

Cooper Defeats Taylor.

Mr. W. B. Cooper, of this city, polled a majority of 638 over C. Ed. Taylor, Esq., of Southport, his Republican opponent, and while incomplete returns from Brunswick county give Mr. Taylor an estimated majority in that county of possibly 300 or 350, Mr. Cooper is safely elected to the State senate from this district.

Interest in the election here was very low, and the vote is probably the lightest of any general election in New Hanover in years.

The only flurry in connection with the election came early yesterday morning when it was discovered that two errors had been made in printing the Australian ballot. On the Senatorial ticket the ballot showed that the candidates were from the Eleventh district, instead of the Tenth, which is correct, and instead of Mr. John A. Orrell for county auditor, the ballot showed that he was a candidate for county treasurer which office was abolished when the legislature created the office of auditor. The discovery of these errors led to considerable confusion, and small strips correcting the errors were hastily printed and distributed to the various polling places, where they were pasted on the ballot.

There was some uncertainty on the question as to whether or not the errors invalidated the votes cast, but the prevailing opinion was that they constituted only a technical violation of the Australian ballot act, and that in the absence of any intent toward wilfully attempting to harm the cause of any candidate, the State election board would hold that there was no violation of the law. This opinion was strengthened last night when the returns came in, showing Democratic majorities that left no question as to the will of the voters.

United States Senator Lee S. Overman polled a majority of 730 votes over his Republican opponent, A. A. Whitener, Esq., of Catawba county. Congressman Godwin's majority over R. W. Davis was 724 and Mr. Cooper's majority over C. Ed. Taylor, Esq., was 638. Corporation Commissioner E. L. Travis received a majority of 694 over Greer Parsons, his Republican opponent.

The county officers, having no opposition, were given total votes averaging from 768 to 799. County Auditor John A. Orrell led the county ticket by one vote, receiving 799 against 798 for Register of Deeds John Haar, the next highest man. W. P. Stacy, Esq., was elected to the lower house of the general assembly with a vote of 768. The four Democratic nominees for magistrates in Wilmington township received total votes averaging about the same as the other county officers and John H. Davis was elected constable for Wilmington township with a similar vote.

Judge George Rountree, of this city, the Democratic nominee to succeed himself on the bench in the Eighth judicial district, received a majority in New Hanover of about the same as the State and congressional officers, and Solicitor Homer L. Lyon, of Whiteville, who had no opposition, was also given a similar vote.

All ten Democratic nominees for Superior court judges received the same heavy majorities over their Republican opponents.

Constitutional Amendments.

Each of the constitutional amendments carried in the county by a majorit yof 500 or more. Amendment No. 10, to require a uniform six months public school term, received the heaviest vote, 637 for and 41 against, while Amendment No. 7, to revise and reform the system of revenue and taxation, received the lowest vote, 594 for and 60 against.

The returns were received at the court house by the board of elections last evening. The canvassing board will meet Thursday at noon to officially canvass the results in the county, and any protests as to invalidated ballots, etc., will probably be made at this time, if at all.

SOUTHERN CLUBS INVITED.

San Francisco Social Organization Arranging to Entertain Them.

Postmaster H. McL. Green, of Wilmington, has received a letter from the San Francisco Southern Club extending an invitation to Southerners visiting the Exposition next year to make their club headquarters. There are several hundred members of the San Francisco club and they have a beautiful club house.

In order to ascertain to whom the club shall extend the courtesy of the club next year, Postmaster Green has been requested to furnish a list of all the social organizations in the city, so that they may be communicated with.

Additional Libels Issued.

Additional libels were issued yesterday against the fishing steamers, Lawrence, Portland and Streng, which are now in port here, by Mr. D. N. Chadwick and J. J. Hopkins & Son. The total sum of the claims is about $1,000. The vessels were libeled by several firms some days ago and since that time have been in the harbor here and watchmen have been placed on each of the vessels by Mr. J. N. Fennell, United States Deputy Marshal. The papers yesterday were issued by Mr. S. P. Colley, deputy clerk of the United States Federa Court.

PLUMBERS TESTIFY BEFORE COMMITTEE

Health Hearing Continued Yesterday Afternoon

Witnesses Declare That Former Inspector Was Not Practically Competent—Other Evidence Is Given

Another three hours was taken up by the joint committee investigating charges of inefficiency and extravagance preferred against the County Health Department by members of City Council in the mayor's office yesterday afternoon, the bulk of the time being taken up with the examination of plumbers, who alleged that Mr. John Mathers, former plumbing inspector for the city of Wilmington, while theoretically well informed on matters of plumbing, is not a man who knows much about the practical side of this kind of work.

Several witnesses were examined who alleged that Dr. John Thames, assistant county officer, had taken fees for the treatment of patients since he has been employed by the county, Mr. B. B. Brown testified that Dr. Thames had called last spring to see his wife and that he had paid him money for this service. In reply, Dr. Thames stated that he had some two an one-half years ago been called to treat Mr. Brown's wife for pellagra, and that last spring he had again been asked to render such assistance as he could. He had distictly stated at the time, he said, that he could not take money for his services as he was in the employ of the county but that Mr. Brown had insisted on giving him a ham from his store and that he had also given him a small amount of money.

Dr. J. B. Cranmer, a member of the county Health Board, elicited from Mr. Brown the information that the former had been treating his wife regularly for some time. Dr. Thames explained that she was in the advanced stages of pellagra and that his calls had been made because of a special request.

Dr. Nesbitt submitted a written statement supplementary to the evidence brought out at the hearing last Friday in which he answered in detail the various allegations complained of in the charges made against the Health Board. There still remain two of the charges to be investigated by the committee and adjournment was taken at 6:15 o'clock last night until 8 o'clock tonight when the remainder of the charges will be taken up. This will complete the examination of witnesses.

Little new evidence was brought out by the examination of the plumbers yesterday afternoon, their testimony simply being a reiteration of certain complaints which were lodged with the City Council several months ago and which were published in the public press at the time. Besides testifying that while Mr. Mathers is theoretically well equipped for performing the duties plumbing inspector he is not practically fitted for this work several stated that they had violated the city plumbing laws with impunity and that they had not been detected by Mr. Mathers. It seemed to be the general opinion of the plumbers that there was need of a more strict examination for plumber's license, which in the past has not been done.

Dr. Nesbitt readily admitted that in the past there has not been an examining board and explained the reasons for not having such a board. He submitted credentials and testimonials as to the ability of Mr. Mathers as a sanitary architect and a letter from Col. J. L. Ludlow, of the State Board of Health, stating that he considered Mr. Mathers a competent man to perform the duties of plumbing inspector. He also submitted a list of condemnations made by Mr. Mathers.

Chairman J. Allan Taylor, of the Investigating committee, presided over the meeting yesterday afternoon, and the other members of the board, Mr. M. J. Corbett and Mr. H. M. Chase, were also present. Others in attendance were Mayor Parker Quince Moore, Councilmen Jones, Wood and Merritt; Chairman M. S. Willard and all members of the Board of Health; City Attorney E. K. Bryan; Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt, county health officer; Dr. John Thames, assistant county health officer; Capt. Thos. Meares, City clerk; Mr. W. A. McGirt, member of the Board of Commissioners; Mr. J. C. McAllister, superintendent of streets; Mr. J. E. Holton, superintendent of the city scavenger service, and several others besides practically all the plumbers in the city.

The plumbers examined by the committee yesterday were Messrs. Walter Barnes, Theodore Schrader, Thad Grotjen, Hugo Eilers, W. R. Dosher, H. E. Longley, Fred Grimth and Otto Genaust.

Much of the testimony of the plumbers was of a technical nature all were pratically unanimous in their statements that Mr. Mathers was not a practical plumber and that conditions in the past have not been as good as they should. Since the appointment of Mr. Genaust in June, it was stated, conditions have greatly improved. It was testified that Mr. Mathers had some times examined work and that the plumbers had changed it after he had gone.

Dr. Nesbitt made a statement in reply to the testimony of the plumbers in which he called attention to the fact that new code which went into effect October 15, 1914 required that plumbers have license and that an examining board will be appointed at the next meeting of the Board of Health to carry out the provisions of the law. He said that the county Board of Health had had the power since May 31st, 1913, to make such laws as it saw fit but explained that it has been thought wise in view of the fact that there was such a large amount of plumbing work to be done not to require an examinating of plumbers immediately but to have a strict inspection which it was hoped would insure first class work.

Councilman Jones called attention to the fact that the Board of Health had had the power to make regulations governing the installation 18 months before the adoption of the recent code. Dr. Nesbitt said that the plumbing law had been ready for passage last July but for economic reasons it was thought best to wait until the code was adopted as a whole. He stated that the old law which required the examination of plumbers was practically nullified by a provision that only one member of a firm was required to be licensed.

SCHOOL CHILDREN WILL CONTRIBUTE XMAS GIFTS

The children of the public schools of Wilmington will contribute gifts to be sent to Europe on the "Santa Claus" ship loaded with Christmas gifts for the fatherless children in the war zone of Europe. The board of education has consented to a request filed by the local Red Cross society that the children be allowed to bring their donations to the schools, where boxes will be provided for them, and it is expected that a large collection of useful articles will be contributed by the children of the city schools.

The vessel to carry the gifts to Europe will be a government chartered ship, and will sail from New York November 10. The Red Cross society is pushing the movement to send gifts to the fatherless little ones in the European war zone, and the local chapter will look after the collection of gifts here.

The public schools throughout the country are joining in the movement, and many contributions have already been made by the school children of the United States. Some schools have formed sweater clubs, stocking clubs, etc., each member contributing some useful article.

One prominent educator has suggested that each child donating a gift wrap up with it a personal note to the little child that will receive it, and this suggestion is being carried out in many instances.

All the children of the public schools here who desire to donate a gift may bring their present to the school they attend, where boxes will be provided for them. The general public is also invited to contribute some useful gift. Money is not asked for, as warm clothing or staple food supplies will be more acceptable.

THEATRICAL

A beautiful stage love story of primitive love that is most appealing, enhanced by a wealth of scenic embellishment, "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine" enables you to realize the truth of things as they appear and are, among a people born and bred within the confines of the Virginia Hills. When most men are in love they invariably wear their hearts on their sleeves and seem anxious to have the woman they love see how it throbs for them. Not so with Jack Hale in Eugene Walter's dramatization of John Fox, Jr.'s "The Trial of the Lonesome Pine." Hale represses his love for June, the primitive moonshiner's daughter, and permits her to reveal slowly the wealth of her own great affection, simply but with great sweetness and frankness.

The play comes here Thursday, November 5.

"Trey o' Hearts" Day.

Undoubtedly the most dangerous installment yet of that greatest of all serial photoplays, "The Trey o' Hearts" for the players engaged in its production was the 12th installment, which is on tap at the popular price photoplay house today, with two other big pictures. Alan goes in search of Judith and a terrific sandstorm envelops them on the desert. It is by the purest accident that he runs up with Judith and saves her life, and she in turn has an opportunity of again saving the life of the man she loves later in the sme installment.

Right at the close of the installment the players have the narrowest escape from death that has yet come to their lot, when they under estimate the power of a dynamite explosion, and are almost enveloped in a great mass of rocks and earth when the terrific explosion occurred which shut off the pursuit of Trine's party.

Thrills upon thrills crowd into this great story as it nears the end, and every week something bigger, more thrilling and more dramatic is woven into the greatest serial drama ever conceived and produced.

There's another notable feature to follow, a full reel Nestor drama, in which are featured Murdock MacQuarrie and Agnes Vernon. It is 'The Nihilists."

Then there's a big Mutual release, "A Modern Othello."

"Million Dollar Mystery" Today.

Here it is again and, of course, the Grand, where it will occur, will be packed today. Episode No. 5 of the famous "Million Dollar Mystery" film serial is on today at this handsome, cozy theatre, but this will not be all by any means. Besides this great film there will be other films, thus affording a great double show and the price of admission will be but 5 cents, any old time today.

The performance will begin at 11 o'clock this morning and continue until 11 o'clock tonight in order to give everey one ample chance to be present. Episode No. 5 is quite the most thrilling of all and carries the intense plot of the story along in rapid and gripping manner. Every one should be certain to see this chapter, as it is flashed on the "movie" screen today. In addition to this the Grand will offer a great bill of films, which will present the greatest and biggest show of moving pictures ever offered in Wilmington.

Tomorrow the Grand will set forth another great Paramount picture when Dr. Daniel Frohman presents the noted actor, Mme. Kalich in "Martha of the Lowlands," and it is the biggest and most superb dramatic offering yet in the way of moving pictures. The Paramounts are always different from all others, and the people of Wilmington have learned to appreciate this.

Five-cent Matinee at the Victoria.

Ah, today is the day, and especially this afternoon, when the Victoria theatre will offer another one of its attractive and rousingly successful ladies and children's five-cent matinee, such as proved a brilliant triumph last Saturday. This afternoon not only will the popular five-cent admission hold forth at this handsome theatre, but in addition to the big show, little Miss Kuma, just the cutest and daintiest Jap maiden you have ever seen, will serve tea at a reception on the stage just after the matinee performance this afternoon. All the ladies and children are invited to the reception, of course, and expected by Manager Peiffer to be there. Little Miss Kuma is one of the stars of the Kuma Japs, who are appearing as the feature of the present great Victoria offering. They are simply great in their wonder-working spectacle and mystify and startle all. They stage the act with special scenery of most elaborate type.

But the Kuma Japs are not the only big headliners. Fox and Ward, the real old-time minstrel "boys," who serve up fun in wholesome and swell fashion, are stars, as are also a most delightful high class comedy team, Hilton and Roberts. They are decidedly clever entertainers and keep the audience convulsed. Ernie Forrest, a splendid musician, is also a star.

bers of City Council that the county health officers had taken money for private services while in the employ of the county, Mr. Frank Bell, of No. 1015 Wooster street, was the first witness called to the stand. He stated that his daughter had been sick and that Dr. Nesbitt had been called to see her and that he had given him a dollar. She later died and he said that the representative of the insurance company in which her life was insured had retained $8 which he said was to pay a bill rendered by Dr. Nesbitt.

However, Mr. Bell was unable to identify Dr. Nesbitt, although he was in the room, and the latter most emphaticalled denied that he was ever called into consultation by him.

Dr. Boiles, who was present at the meeting, protested vigorously against the practices of certain insurance agents whom he said are in the practice of mulcting people out of their money by having men pretending to be physicians call and later to charge for their services. "There are insurance men in Wilmington dishonorable enough," he declared, "to hold back insurance money on the pretension that it for some physician and then put it into their pockets."

Mr. J. O. Chadwick, a member of the street department, stated that some time ago he had a foot injured by being run over by a wagon. When he went to the county Health Department he said that he was unable to secure medical aid and was forced to go to a physician for treatment. Dr. Thames in reply stated that as he was going out of the office on the day Mr. Chadwick was hurt, he was approached by a boy who stated that a man was hurt. Dr. Thames said that as he had no surgical apparatus in the office he told the boy to take the injured man to a physician who could treat him, and if he was badly hurt to take him to the hospital.

Several other witnesses were examined on this point but it turned out that it was prior to the time that Dr. Thames and Dr. Nesbitt had been employed for their entire time by the county that they had called them to their homes.

City Attorney Bryan, who conducted the examinations for the City Council, stated after the reading of Dr. Nesbitt's supplementary reply to the charges made against the Health Department, that he did not understand at the time the autombile was purchased by the Board of Health for the assistant county health officer that there was any serious objection although it was not his understanding that any agreement had been reached that it should be done. The contention of the Health Department has been that it had this right and the City Council has held that it was a misappropriation of funds.

FOR THE THIN AND SCRAWNY.

Samose Will Make You Plump and Rosy, Says J. Hicks Bunting.

If you are getting thin, you are sick, although you may not know it. If you are losing weight steadily, there is something wrong that needs looking after. If you have always been thin it doesn't follow that you are sick, but you may not be healthy. You cannot be strong if you are thin.

Try then to be healthy and plump; it is not difficult if you know how.

The only way to increase the weight and gain health and flesh is by using Samose, the standard flesh-forming food and tissue builder. It mingles with the food you eat and is assimilated so that all the flesh forming and tissue building elements of the food are retained in the system. This explains the great value of Samose.

Fatness, happiness and health they all go together. How seldom you see a fat person who is not happy. On the other hand, thin people are unhappy and nervous. Use Samose and be well and fat and happy.

The arrangements for the event are in the hands of a joint committee from George Washington and Jeff Davis Councils of this city.

The following compose the joint committee in charge of arrangements for the event: George Washington Council—A. W. Branch, chairman F. A. Lord and C. H. Huband. Jeff Davis—B. F. King, Jr., chairman; H. E. Walton and C. W. Craig.

Mr. Adams is closing a four year's pastorate and will be transferred at the annual conference, which meets this month, to some other point. One of the important features of his work has been that for the young men and there is probably no minister in the city who has accomplished more in this line than he.

His subject will be "The Young Men and the Old Way." Special music will be rendered by a large choir and there will also be several solos and duets.

RECOMMEND PRESENT MARKET

Joint Committee Believe That It is Sufficient for Needs.

Recommendations will be made to city council at the regular meeting today that the present city market is sufficiently large to take care of the carts of farmers as well as accommodate the other features. This was decided upon at a meeting of the streets and wharves committee of the Chamber of Commerce and committees from North Carolina Sorosis and the Housewives' league which was held yesterday morning at 11:30 o'clock.

The committee recommends that the arrangements be made on the north side exterior to be used by the farmer, and that the unoccupied center of the market be so arranged that the farmers can use this at a nominal rental.

Those present were: Messrs. W. B. Thorpe, chairman; W. E. Perdew, D. H. Penton, J. L. Becton and M. J. P. Herring, the latter being a visitor. Representing Sorosis and the Housewives' league were Mesdames W. M. Creasy, J. G. Barrentine and R. W. Hicks.

Mr. Haar Adjudged to Be Bankrupt

Mr. G. Henry Haar upon the petition of a number of creditors has been adjudged an involuntary bankrupt by Geo. H. Howell, Esq., referee in bankruptcy. According to an estimate made by Mr. Har he has assets of $14,500, $8,500 in merchandise and $6,000 in realestate. He places his liabilities at $8,850, $2,350 of which is covered by mortgage and $6,000 on open account. The first meeting of the creditors will be in the United States Court room on November 12th. Most of the creditors are represented by W. P. Mangum Turner and Robert Ruark, Esq.,

Send Parcels Early.

With Christmas less than two months off, it is not too early to begin thinking of the presents that shall be sent to friends at a distance and Postmaster H. McL. Green, of Wilmington, suggests that patrons of the parcel post can save themselves a lot of worry by sending packages early. Instructions can be placed on the parcels that they shall not be opened until Christmas or that they shall be held in the receiving office until Christmas for delivery. The prospects are this year that the parcel post will be used extensively in spite of the depressed conditions.

NORTH CAROLINA CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY CONVENTION.

Convenes at Greenville—In Session Three Days—Big Gathering.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greenville, N. C., Nov. 2.—The first session of the North Carolina Christian Missionary Convention (Disciples of Christ) convened with the church here tonight. It being the first meeting and many remaining home to vote at tomorrow's elections, the attendance was not so large as it otherwise would have been. A large crowd is expected to arrive tomorrow, mostly delegates bing in attendance. The convention met here several years ago and the attendance is expected to be larger than on that occasion.

An interesting programme has been prepared and there will be addresses by many of the most prominent churchmen in the United States.

Washington, Nov. 3.—The funeral of Lieut. Gen. Adna R. Chaffee, U. S. A., retired, who died Saturday in Los Angeles, will be held at St. John's church, Washington, Monday afternoon, followed by interment in Arlington National cemetery. The body of General Chaffee will arrive in Washington Saturday.

HEADACHES

Thousands of men and women suffer from headaches every day, other thousands have headaches every week or every month, and still others have headaches occasionally, but not at regular intervals. The best doctor is often unable to find the cause of many of these headaches, and in most other cases, knowing the cause, he does not know what will remove it, so as to give a permanent cure. All he can do is to prescribe the usual pain relievers, which give temporary relief, but the headache returns as usual, and treatment is again necessary. If you suffer from headaches, no matter what their nature, take Anti-kamnia Tablets, and the results will be satisfactory in the highest degree. You can obtain them at all druggists in any quantity, 10c worth, 25c worth or more. Ask for A-K Tablets.

SICK-HEADACHES

Sick-headache, the most miserable of all sicknesses, loses its terrors when A-K Tablets are taken. When you feel an attack coming on, take two tablets, and in many cases, the attack will be warded off. During an attack take one A-K Tablet every two hours. The rest and comfort which follow, can be obtained in no other way.

"The Thinkers of the Country Are the Tobacco Chewers"— said one of the greatest thinkers this country ever produced.

Says the Judge:

"My brain grasps the points of a case more easily when I'm chewing PICNIC TWIST. I suppose it's because of the gentle stimulation that PICNIC TWIST gives without the after effects of "strong" tobacco.

"Have you ever noticed how many great jurists chew? Well, there's nothing better to oil the wheels of justice than PICNIC TWIST."

Have you ever wished for a tobacco that you could keep on chewing without feeling that you were over-chewing?

For a long time you've really been looking for PICNIC TWIST, with its lasting sweet taste, and true tobacco satisfaction with no "come-back."

Compare PICNIC TWIST in taste, looks, convenience or any other way, with any dark "heavy" tobacco. Then you'll know the advantage of chewing the light, mild, mellow part of the leaf, the only kind that goes into PICNIC TWIST.

There are few better preservatives of the teeth than PICNIC TWIST.

Gossip From Washington

THEY were talking about dogs in the lobby of a Washington hotel the other night when Representative Oscar Callaway of Texas told of a summer kioodle owned by a man named Jones.

One night late last fall a stranger called at the home of Jones on a matter of business, and while waiting for papa to bulge into the parlor he pried open a conversation with the six-year-old son by asking him if he had a dog.

"Yes, sir," was the prompt rejoinder of the youngster; "we have a dachshund."

"That's fine!" cheerfully returned the caller. "Where is he?"

"Father had to send him away for the winter," answered the boy, with a serious expression. "It takes him so long to get in and out of the door that he chills the whole house."

Senator John D. Works of California was talking about a very remarkable piece of "high finance."

SENATOR WORKS.

"It looks marvelous," he said, "but there is nothing really marvelous about it. All that such a job requires is perfect unscrupulousness.

"In that it is like Jones. Jones was a mill worker, and one day he came to work without any milk in his coffee. Smith, on the other hand, had a pail of coffee that was all golden with rich milk.

"Just before the lunch hour the milkless Jones began to tell Smith stories about strange thefts.

"'Some of these thieves'll take the hat off your head without your knowin' it,' he said.

"'No!' said Jones.

"'Some of 'em'll take the coat off your back while you're sleepin' on the train.'

"'No!'

"The milkless Smith as the noon whistle blew then sent Jones off on some trifling errand. A quick manipulation followed, and poor Jones said on his return:

"'I guess it's right what you was tellin' me about them thieves, for blamed if one of 'em ain't gone and swiped the milk outen my coffee!'"

There is a story told on Senator Albert B. Cummins of Iowa to the effect that last summer he and his wife went to a fashionable roof garden in Washington. After a day at the capitol the cool breeze and music seemed delightful, so the senator bethought himself of something to eat. Taking up the card, he tried to read it without his glasses, which he had left on his desk, but was unsuccessful.

SENATOR CUMMINS.

He appealed to Mrs. Cummins, but she had also forgotten hers. So the senator handed the card to a colored waiter who stood at the back of his chair.

"Waiter," he said, "please read this for me."

The man took the card, looked at it in a puzzled way, then gave it back.

"I'sorry, boss, that I can't help you out," he said, with a shake of the head, "but you see I ain't got much education either."

Representative William C. Houston of Tennessee tells a story on his predecessor, the Hon. George P. Jones, who was known in his day as the "watchdog" of the treasury.

Jones was a merchant, and one day an irate old lady dismounted in front of his store, gathered up her black calico riding skirt, took her eggs under her arm and sailed into the store. The names she called Jones would have made a Missouri mule blush. Backing out, flushed with victory, she was about to mount when she remembered that she had not fired the most effective shot in her ammunition chest; so, opening the door, she shouted, "And I want to tell you, George P. Jones, that you have got the worst shape any man ever had."

GRAHAM FLOUR RECIPES.

Graham Yeast Bread.—Take one quart of liquid yeast, three quarts of graham flour and one quart of white flour, salt and shortening and two tablespoonfuls of brown sugar. Let rise once; then put in pans and raise, being careful not to get too light, as it will fall if you do. Bake about forty-five minutes.

Graham Muffins.—One quart of sweet milk, one egg, one-half teaspoonful salt, two teaspoonfuls melted shortening, one tablespoonful brown sugar, two tablespoonfuls baking powder, graham flour to make stiff batter. Bake about thirty minutes in hot oven in muffin rings.

Graham Wafers. — One-half cupful butter or any prepared shortening, four tablespoonfuls sugar, one well beaten egg, one-half teaspoonful salt, one teaspoonful of soda dissolved in two tablespoonfuls hot water, one-half cupful sweet milk. Beat mixture thoroughly and then add as much graham flour as the mixture will hold; knead until it sticks together. Roll very thin and cut into wafers. Bake in a moderate oven until a golden brown and very crisp. Splendid for tea or school lunches.

Graham Pudding.—One pound dates, one cupful nut meats, one cupful sugar, one cupful graham flour, one quart of water. Salt to taste. Boil fifteen minutes. Serve cold with whipped cream.

Graham Cake.—Two cupfuls buttermilk, two cupfuls brown sugar, two tablespoonfuls melted butter, two teaspoonfuls soda, one teaspoonful salt, one teaspoonful each of cinnamon, cloves and nutmeg, one cupful raisins, one egg, one cupful white flour, graham flour to make a stiff batter.

HOMELY MAXIMS.

A great deal of talent is lost to the world because a little courage is lacking.

It will not do any good longing for ten talents if one is not improving the single one intrusted to him.

Forbearance is a domestic jewel, not to be worn for state and show, but for daily and unostentatious ornament.

Real greatness does not depend on the things we do, but on the mind with which we do them.

The crown of patience cannot be received where there has been no suffering; without contending there can be no conquest.

The present moment is the wave of the ocean of time upon which our life bark rests.

Many of the shadows that cross our path in life are caused by our standing in our own light.

Some people's so called busy lives are nothing after all but an unquiet way of doing nothing.

What we see is not so much what is before our eyes as what lies behind them.

Left Over Pickles.

Small leftovers of piccalilli and other pickles, finely chopped and mixed with their liquor, will be a most tasty addition to all kinds of made dishes, besides greatly improving the gravies of hashes and stews.

The vinegar remaining at the bottom of a jar of clear pickle when the spices are strained from it also proves exceedingly useful for flavoring purposes.

PLANNING MEALS.

The Housekeeper Must Be More or Less of a Practical Scientist.

The foods which best serve certain food needs are discussed in a new lesson in the reading course for farm women given by the home economics department of Cornell. This lesson is called "Rules For Planning the Family Dietary," and it tells the housekeeper what foods to use to provide her household with the proper amount of energy and iron.

Milk, eggs, meat, legumes and cereals make living tissue grow; cereals, legumes, fats, sugars and starches yield energy; milk, legumes and whole cereals supply lime; eggs, legumes, oatmeal, vegetables and fruits produce iron.

Mild flavored, nonstimulating, simply prepared and easily digested foods should make up the main part of every meal.

Eggs should always be used when they can be afforded—a wise consideration.

Much water should be consumed and fruits and vegetables used liberally.

Cereals and cereal food which include the outer layer of the grain are better than those that have had this layer removed. The age, vigor and activity of the individual should determine the strength of his food.

DON'TS FOR BUSINESS GIRLS.

Don't start as a milliner unless you have a real gift for trimming hats.

Don't accept a position in an office if you long for an outdoor life.

Don't think of your salary first and your work afterward. The good worker can always command a good salary.

Don't go on the stage because your friends admire your amateur acting. It is hard work and only fit for those who have talent and grit.

Don't undervalue yourself. It is almost as bad as overvaluing your abilities.

Don't take a position as saleswoman if you are incurably shy. You will be a failure.

Don't insist upon an easy berth. Such are those first closed down when hard times come, as they usually do.

Food For Consumptives.

The chief of the medical staff at a famous hospital in Paris has had the excellent idea of causing placards to be posted in the institution giving a list of the eatables which visitors are forbidden or permitted to bring to the inmates under treatment for consumption. In this list, which forms a useful sort of epitome of the dietetic management of tuberculous cases, the articles are classed under three heads—forbidden, allowed and recommended.

The forbidden articles are game, lobsters, crabs, crawfish, wine or alcoholic liquors of any kind, sweetmeats, biscuits, prunes, currants, nuts and almonds. Allowed are breakfast rolls, chocolate, fruit preserves, sugar, roasted chestnuts, cocoa, coffee, tea, cherries, strawberries, apricots, pears, apples, cakes, figs, dates and pastry. The following eatables are recommended as desirable: Cheese (Gruyere, Camembert, Roquefort, etc.), fresh cream, fresh or salted butter, goose liver sausages, ham, roast chicken, cold roast beef, cold mutton, fresh eggs, sardines, tunny, mackerel in oil, oysters, oranges, raisins, peaches, honey and ginger cakes.

Squash Muffins.

Add one-fourth cupful of sugar to half a cupful of cooked squash, half a teaspoonful of salt and a large tablespoonful of melted butter, then stir in gradually one-half cupful of scalded milk. Let cool and add one-quarter dried yeast cake dissolved in a quarter cupful of water, and sufficient flour to make a batter so stiff that the spoon will stand upright in it. Cover and let rise in warm place overnight. In the morning toss out on floured board, cut in pieces to a size to two-thirds fill buttered muffin rings. Cover and let rise till rings are full, bake in hot oven twenty to twenty-five minutes.

TO CLOSE THE DISCOURSE.

It was at the Sunday school, and a dull and prosy speaker, who was no favorite with the children, had risen to give one of his interminable addresses.

"And now, my dear little girls and boys," he began, "what shall I say to you this afternoon?"

There was a momentary pause, and then a shrill voice from the back piped up:

"Please, mister, say 'Amen!'"

Slanderous Insinuation.

Golf Professional (giving a lesson)—You know, sir, you lift your elbow too much to play golf properly.

New Member—How dare you! I'll report you to the committee! I'm a lifelong teetotaler!

Father's Estimate.

"What did old man Goggins say when you told him you wanted to marry his daughter?"

"He said there was no accounting for tastes."

Hand-me-downs.

"I have to wear father's old clothes. I don't suppose you girls have any troubles like those."

"Yes, we do," said the girl. "I have to wear mother's old hair."

ON THE MERRY-GO-ROUND

An Interested Party.

Magistrate—Are you interested in this case?

Witness For the Prosecution—Yes, sir; the prisoner cut my acquaintance.

Not So in His Case.

"They say celery is a splendid thing if you require sleep." "Not in my case. I have to get up at 4 o'clock in the morning to take it to market."

Honk, Honk.

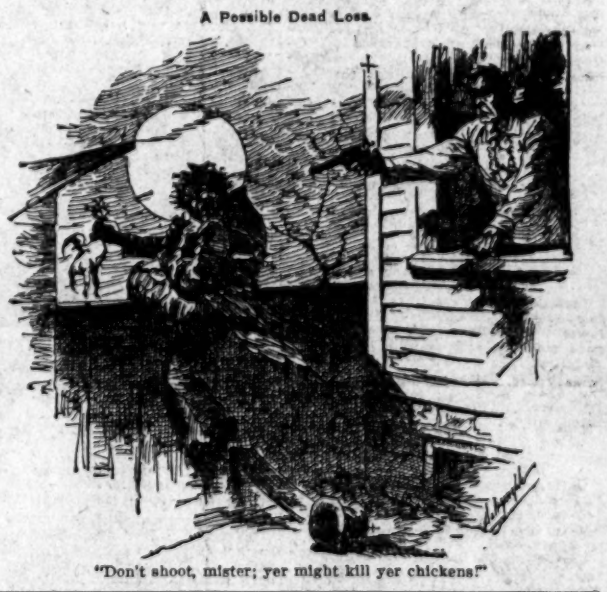
"Do you see that man going along with his head in the air, sniffing with his nose?"

"Yes, I know him."

"I suppose he believes in taking in the good, pure ozone."

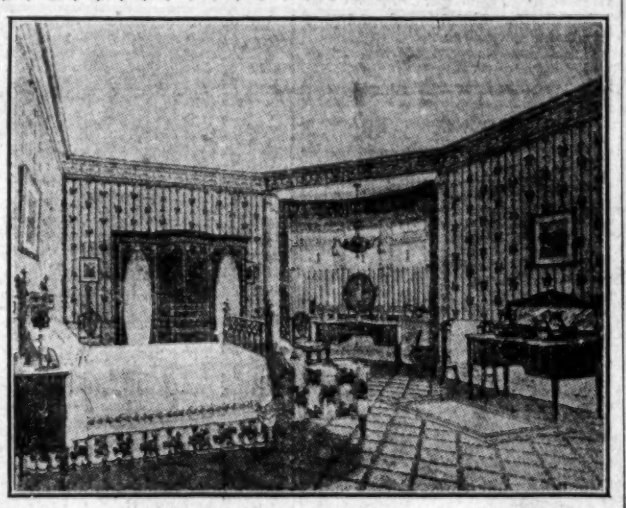
"No; he's hunting for a motor garage, I believe."

A Possible Dead Loss.



"Don't shoot, mister; yer might kill yer chickens!"

CHEERFUL BEDROOM FOR AN INVALID



BEDROOM IN CRETONNE.

CRETONNE gives a touch of brightness to the bedroom which makes it an ideal fabric for use when this apartment is to be used by an invalid. The walls in the case of the bedroom illustrated were covered with pink and white figured cretonne. The same material was used for the valance of the bed and the slip covers for the furniture.

Handy Fastening For Motor Veil.

run through. Then a snap fastener is attached. When it is used it may be clasped securely under the hat and fastened in the back so it will not slip. Then the veil may be tied to suit the taste.

Traveler's Toilet Apron.

For the traveler a silk set is convenient. It consists of a Pullman apron, which may be tied around the waist securely. It contains pockets to hold the accessories of the toilet and a wash cloth and towel in a small matching case. The same sort of set in cretonne is cheaper.

THE CHILDREN'S CORNER

Paul Revere Bug—Awake, awake; the squirrel is coming!

Origin of an Expression.

Humble pie is another peculiar expression. When we say a person eats humble pie we mean that he is made to feel ashamed of himself by having to apologize for some wrongdoing, or to admit that he has made a mistake.

Now "eating humble pie" comes to us from the old feudal times of England, when one of the barons gave a hunting feast it was customary to have a venison pie.

The lords and guests were served with the very best, while those in lower rank sat at the foot of the table and ate pies made of the umbles or poorer parts of the deer. These were called "umble pies." Those who ate umble pies were those who held humble positions, not those who had to be humiliated.

Houses For All.

Dingalow, dungalow,
Skyscraper, bungalow,
Houses for all kinds of people.
Frame ones and brick ones,
And thin ones and thick ones,
And tall ones as high as a steeple.
Dingalow, dungalow, dillyzoround,
A fox for a house likes a hole in the ground.

The Hammock.

When Columbus parted from the Indians to go back to Spain and report on the strange country and people he had found he made them presents of trinkets, beads, etc. They in turn gave him and his sailors some parting gifts, balls of cotton, parrots and cakes of queer bread called "cassava." But the strangest gift of all was one of their native beds, and what do you suppose that looked like? It was made of coarse net and was swung between two posts. They called it "hamoc." Did you suppose our hammocks belonged to history as old as that?

Riddle.

From a number that's odd cut off the head.
It then will even be.
Its tail, I pray, take next away,
Your mother then you'll see.

Answer—Seven.

The Flying Pig.

Dickory, dickory, dare,
The pig flew up the stair.
A silly thing for me to sing,
For how could he be there?

An Old Favorite

Kilkenny For Me

The boys of Kilkenny are stout roving blades.
When they get in company with pretty, fair maids
They kiss them and court them and spend their money free.
So of all towns in Ireland Kilkenny for me.

Through the town of Kilkenny there runs a clear stream.
In the town of Kilkenny there lives a fair dame.
Her cheeks are like roses and her lips much the same.
Like a dish of ripe strawberries all smothered in crame.

Kilkenny's a fine town and shines where she stands
With clear, sparkling water and bright silv'ry sands.
If I were in Kilkenny I'd think myself at home,
For there I'd have sweethearts, while here I have none.

Plain Cottage Cheese.

Take the clabber and pour into it boiling water to curd the solid part of the clabber quickly. Cut several times with a knife and drain in cheesecloth bag. Mash drained curd soft and smooth with a silver spoon much as you would mash potatoes until all the lumps are gone. Add one teaspoonful of thick sour cream to each pint of curd and three tablespoonfuls of sweet cream, with salt and pepper to taste. Beat well till it is light and fluffy.

Today's Short Story

THE HIDDEN CARD

I WAS born a noble in the principality of Engendorf. I was in favor at court, having been a page to the hereditary prince from the time I was ten years old. I grew up near a little maid of honor to the princess, the Countess Heloise, and we were lovers from the moment we met. The crown prince was about my age and an inveterate gambler. He would invite a number of us to his apartments in his father's palace and keep us playing till cock crow. In the group was the Duke of Selzerin, a young man of far higher rank than I, who had opened negotiations for the hand of the Countess Heloise. He was considered the best catch in the principality, and the only bar to his winning the countess was her love for me. This he well knew and hated me accordingly.

One night after we had exhausted the interest to be derived from European games we received an invitation from the crown prince to play the American game of poker. I was seated on one side of the prince and the Duke of Selzerin on the other. The prince had been losing heavily for some weeks and was on the verge of financial difficulty. During the evening I felt his hand against my outside pocket. Suddenly the duke threw down his cards and said he would play no longer with a cheat. To prove his charge he called upon me to produce what was in my pocket—the pocket next to the prince. I did so and took out an ace of hearts.

I was appalled. I knew full well that the prince had had more cards in his possession than he was entitled to and had put one of them in my pocket. My enemy had seen him do it. I called several of my best friends into another room for consultation and told them the facts. They were unanimous in the opinion that it would never do for me to accuse the prince and that the only safety was to hush the matter up. They returned to the prince and the duke and earnestly recommended this course. The prince was glad enough to accede to it, and the duke reluctantly promised. How well he kept his promise is evident from the fact that within a week I was a cut man for cheating at cards.

I saw at once that I was in the duke's power.

I soon heard that my misfortune had occasioned one of the greatest scandals that had ever occurred at the capital. That which set people's tongues wagging with the greatest earnestness was that none of those present except the duke, who was to marry the most popular woman in the principality, would admit that I had been guilty of any misdemeanor.

One day while I was walking disconsolately in my grounds I saw a carriage stop in the road and some one within beckoning to me. I went to it and found Heloise. She asked me to get in with her, and when I had done so she drew the curtains and the coachman drove away. Then she conjured me by all that had passed between us for so many years either to confess that the accusations against me were true or explain them. I asked her why she had not called for an explanation before, and she said that she had been watched by her father, who had accepted the duke for her, to the end that she should not communicate with me. Then she again begged me to solve the mystery.

I gave her the story, except that I did not accuse the prince. I had no reason to do so. The facts were enough to convince her that the man she was about to marry had ruined me to serve his own purpose with her. After I had finished she sat for some time in silence, then said:

"I am as sure of the truth of your statement as if I had seen all you say transpire. But you must live the rest of your life in disgrace. The prince cannot be forced to bear his own sin. There is one thing I can do," she added, laying her hand on mine and looking into my eyes with her own honest and sympathetic ones—"I can share the burden with you."

How or why I finally consented to permit her to do so I do not care to reveal. She drove me back to my own gate and left me there. The next day her engagement with the duke was broken, and in another week her engagement with me astonished everybody. On the sending out of our wedding cards I slipped into the one sent to the duke an ace of hearts.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON.

Staple Made Further Advances During Yesterday's Trading on Market.

New Orleans, Nov. 3.—Cotton made further advances today, spots being marked up ¼ to 7 3-16 for middling, while January contracts traded freely at 7.58 and 7.60, closing at 7.57 bid, but little for sale at that figure. Probably the liquidation of the day made up the largest single day's trading in futures since the exchange was closed. There was much talk of still higher prices, bulls pointing to the sales of 13,300 bales in spots in Liverpool and making much of reports that many mills in this country were busy on goods intended for wear in the armies of Europe, but more conservative brokers and operators were inclined to think that the advance was a little too fast.

A petition was circulated in the afternoon and generally signed by the members of the exchange authorizing the board of directors to make changes in the laws of the exchange to conform with recent legislation passed by Congress. Only a few minor changes are necessary.

TOBACCO CROP MAY BE ENTIRE LOSS

Dominican Republic Appeals to State Department—Crop Sold in Advance

Washington, Nov. 2.—An appeal for aid for the tobacco interests of the Dominican Republic was made to the State Department today by the Dominican minister. He said there was fear that the entire crop, the principal product of the northern part of the Island, might be lost, as it had been sold in dvance and was to have gone to Hamburg, Germany. No ships can be found to carry it.

The financial stringency already is being felt, the minister explained, and the tobacco cannot bt kept long without spoiling.

An effort will be made to obtain neutral vessels to handle the crop.

Another Landslide Blocks Big Ditch Across Isthmus.

Washington, Nov. 2.—The Panama Canal has been closed to navigation by another landslide. Col. Goethals hopes to have it open again by Wednesday.

Col. Goethals cabled hte canal commission late today:

"Rapid movement of slide material in the break north of Gold Hill locked the channel Saturday. Hope to open channel by Wednesday."

As understood at the canal office this slide is only an aftermath of the big slide of October 14th.

Washington, Nov. 3.—The interstate commerce commission announced today that beginning on January 30 a court would be held in Chicago in course of its investigation of railroad embargoes on freight.

Baby of Future is Considered

Much thought has been given in late years to the subject of maternity. In the cities there are maternity hospitals equipped with modern methods. But most women prefer their own homes and in the towns and villages must prefer them. And since this is true we know from the great many splendid letters written on the subject that our "Mother's Friend" is a great help to expectant mothers. They write of the wonderful relief, how it seemed to allow the muscles to expand without undue strain and what a splendid influence it was on the nervous system. Such helps as "Mother's Friend" and the broader knowledge of them should have a helpful influence upon babies of the future. Science says that an infant derives its sense and builds its character from cutaneous impressions. And a tranquil mother certainly will transmit a more healthful influence than if she is extremely nervous from undue pain. This is what a host of women believe who used "Mother's Friend."

These points are more thoroughly explained in a little book mailed free.

"Mother's Friend" is sold in all drug stores. Write for book. Bradfield Regulator Co., 411 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

CHICAGO STOCK YARDS MAYBE ORDERED CLOSED

Hoof and Mouth Disease Epidemic Grows Serious

Representatives of the Federal and State Governments in Conference With Packers Over Situation. Prices Will Tumble.

Chicago, Nov. 3.—The gravity of the epidemic of hoof and mouth disease affecting cattle in the Middle West became apparent today when Dr. S. E. Bennett, of the bureau of animal industry, declared the slaughter of suspected animals would be cheap at a cost of $10,000,000 compared with the incalculable loss which a general spread of the malady would incur.

Representatives of the federal government yesterday were in favor of closing the Chicago stock yards, the largest in the world, and an order to that effect was rescinded only after prolonged argument. The possibility of such action is not yet past. Gov. Dunne, in conference with State and federal government representatives and meat packers today, voted a renewed proposal to close the yards.

Among the packers today it was said that the immediate situation should make for lower prices, as it was thought cattle growers rather than risk disease among their herds, would rush their live stock to market where it must be killed immediately. One case of the malady appeared today and was isolated.

EMBARGO IS ORDERED.

Canada Wants No Cattle From American of the Line Shipped There.

Ottowa, Nov. 3.—Because of the spread of the foot and mouth diseases Canada has extended the embargo against American cattle to Illinois and Pennsylvania. Previously it applied only to cattle from Michigan and Indiana.

REAL ESTATE HIGH AROUND MOUNT OLIVE DESPITE WAR

Junior Order Council Initiated at Seven Springs by Mount Olive Council

(Special Star Correspondence)

Mount Olive, N. C., Nov. 3.—An organization committee, composed of eight members of the Mount Olive council, Junior Order of United American Mechanics, went to Seven Springs Friday night for the purpose of organizing a council there, installing the necessary administrative officers, etc., members of the organization committee stated before leaving here that the new council would begin with quite a large membership; 37 new members to be initiated, and that quite likely members of other councils who reside near Seven Springs would move their membership to the Seven Springs Council.

Despite the present financial depression, low prices for cotton, etc., real estate seems to be going at top-notch prices. According to a report current here, a farm of some two hundred and sixty acres, located four miles from here, in Duplin county, sold a few days ago for $26,000, or $100 per acre.

DEMOCRATS CARRY STATE BY 40, 000

HOOD CLAIMS 2,000 MAJORITY

Wayne Votes Against Amendments and for Democracy—Majority Reduced.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Goldsboro, N. C. Nov. 3.—Today's election passed off very quietly in this city. In fact very little interest seemed in evidence, but some credit must be given Goldsboro as it is estimated the county will only give a Democratic majority of 500 or 600 votes and as Goldsboro gave a majority of 500 votes but for this fact the Republicans would have carried the county by several hundred.

From information gathered by the Democratic chairman, he says all the amendments were defeated throughout the county, as also they were in this city.

Senator Overman received 600 majority; Hood for congress 650 to 700, and all county officers something over 500 majority.

Hood claims that he will carry the district by 2,000 majority. The small majority in this county, the Democratic chairman claims, is due to the fact that the voters stayed away from the polls, thinking the Democrats had a perfect walk-over.

SAFE IN EDGECOMBE

Amendments Carry by 700 Majority—Democratic Tickets O. K.

(Special Star Telegram)

Tarboro, N. C., Nov. 3,—On account of there being no opposition ticket in this county, the vote was smaller than would have otherwise been the case. County Chairman W. O. Howard stated this evening that, while all precincts had not been heard, from the Democratic majority for senator, State and county officers would be between eight hundred and a thousand.

For all amendments the majority is approximately seven hundred.

ROBESON VOTE LIGHT

Democratic Majority Reduced to About 1,000—Amendments Uncertain

(Special Star Telegram)

Lumberton, N. C., Nov. 3.—The election passed off very quietly in Robeson today, a light vote being polled. The Republicans were more successful in getting their voters to the polls than the Democrats, the latter not polling much over half their usual strength, but while several precincts have not been heard from the county is Democratic by at least one thousand majority from United States senator down.

The amendments are not very clear and will require official count.

REPUBLICANS CLAIM BRUNSWICK

That Taylor Carries County by 350 Majority—Returns Meagre.

Southport, Nov. 3.—Early returns here tonight seem to indicate a Democratic victory in Brunswick. Smithville township gave about 100 Democratic majority; Town Creek 25 and Northwest 35.

Southport, Nov. 3.—(11:30 p. m.)—Conservative Republican advices here tonight, with only two small precincts to hear from, and the votes in these being estimated, are to the effect that Taylor will have a majority of 350 for the State senate; that Tewett, Republican, has defeated Capt. Adkins for the legislature by about 200, while the Republican board commissioners is elected by a small majority, as is also McKeithan for clerk of court over Newton. The Democrats win in the election of Sheriff Robinson; Register of Deeds Gray and Treasurer C. A. Russ. These figures, it is stated, may be relied upon to be confirmed by the official count.

Maxton, N. C., Nov. 3.—From returns received here tonight from over the county, the indications are that the Democratic majority will be between 1,000 and 1,200 but that the amendments are defeated by a considerable majority.

Lumberton, N. C., Nov. 3.—After a talk with Chairman T. A. McNeill late tonight your correspondent gathers that in Robeson today the tax amendment is certainly defeated, but the others are in doubt and will probably be carried by small majorities.

REPUBLICANS CLAIM TENTH

Say Britt is Elected by 500 to 800—Orange Goes Bad

(Special Star Telegram.)

Greensboro, N. C., Nov. 3.—Local Republican headquarters claim the election of Britt in the Tenth by 500 to 800 at 11 o'clock tonight; also the election of D. S. Smith to the legislature in Orange by a majority of 50. No definite news was received from the Eighth, it was said.

DUPLIN BY FOUR HUNDRED

Carried by Democratic Candidates. Doubt About Amendments.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Warsaw, N. C., Nov. 3.—Early returns from Duplin indicate a Democratic majority of 400 for State and county officers and legislative candidates. Indications are that there is an even vote upon the amendments, with a probability of a slight majority in favor of their adoption. R. D. Johnson's majority will be around 800 in the Ninth senatorial district.

CUMBERLAND AGAINST THEM.

Amendments Defeated by 800 Majority. Democratic Tickets O. K.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Fayetteville, N. C., Nov. 3.—A very small vote was cast in Cumberland. The amendments were defeated by at least 800. All State Democratic ticket and Godwin have majorities of about 700. Democratic county ticket is elected by at least 600, except Currie, for the lower house, whose majority will not exceed 200. It is impossible to get full returns, but these are safe estimates based on returns already in.

JONES FOR AMENDMENTS

Democratic Tickets Carried by Majorities of 325 to 425.

(Special Star Telegram.

Trenton, N. C. (via Newbern), Nov. 3.—Not all of the precincts have been heard from in Jones county but indications are that the Democrats will receive a majority of 325 or more. The total vote will be little more than 425.

The amendments will carry by a handsome majority. However, there was some voting against them. The county and State officers received the full vote.

NINETEENTH GOES DEMOCRATIC

Buncombe and Madison Elect Democratic Solicitor.

(Special Star Telegram.

Asheville, N. C., Nov. 3.—Incomplete returns from the Nineteenth judicial district, composed of Buncombe and Madison counties, indicate that J. Ed. Swain, Democratic nominee for solicitor, has defeated Vonno L. Gudger, Republican-Progressive candidate, by a majority which will run in the neighborhood of 500 votes.

Swain made an excellent showing in Buncombe, overcoming Madison's vote of 500 for Gudger.

AMENDMENTS SCRATCHED IN PITT

Official Returns Only Will Show Result—Democratic Ticket Safe.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Greenville, N. C., Nov. 3.—Little interest was taken in the election in Pitt. About 50 per cent of the vote was cast. A few Republicans voted. Returns will be late. Reports indicate Democratic State, congressional and county tickets by over 1,500 majority. The amendments are in doubt, being badly scratched. It will take the official returns to give the result.

BEAUFORT FOR THEM

Amendments and Democratic Tickets Carry All Right.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, N. C., Nov. 3.—Incomplete returns from Beaufort county give a Democratic majority of approximately 600; five precincts not yet heard from.

Majority for amendments approximates 1,000; voting all over the county was very light. Republican vote equally as light as Democratic. Impossible to give complete returns.

CARTERET COUNTY O. K.

Democratic Full Ticket Elected and Amendments Carried.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Newbern, N. C., Nov. 3.—Reports from Carteret county late tonight state that the Democrats have elected their full ticket. The majority is somewhat reduced on account of the fusion of the Republicans and Progressives and dissatisfied Democrats.

The amendments carried by a small majority.

RETURNS FROM 33 COUNTIES

Show Democratic Majority of 20,200 at 10 O'clock Last Night.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 3.—At 10 o'clock at Democratic headquarters from 33 counties show 20,200 Democratic majority.

One congressional district, the Tenth, is in doubt. It looks like Gudger is defeated by J. J. Britt.

NASH AGAINST AMENDMENTS

But Gives Good Safe Majorities for Democratic Tickets.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., Nov. 3.—With slow reports coming in, the indications are that Nash county has given the State ticket a good majority, but on the constitutional amendments vote the majority appears to disapprove by a close margin with school and taxation paragraphs meeting heaviest opposition.

VOTE LIGHT IN BLADEN.

Democrats Safe and Amendments Carry by Good Majority.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Elizabethtown, N. C., Nov. 3.—The election was very quiet. Democratic majority was materially reduced. Returns were slow. A conservative estimate is 350 to 400 majority.

Amendments will carry by good majority. Only six townships have been heard from.

GRANVILLE AGAINST SEVENTH

But Probably Gives Majority for Other Amendments.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Oxford, N. C., Nov. 3.—Six precincts voted on seventh amendments: For 257, against 246. The county will give a majority against the seventh; probably for the others.

AMERICAN NATIONAL BANK SECURITY 4% SERVICE WILMINGTON N.C.

PLAIN TALK No. 3

If a business man went to his home after his day's work in his office and found the chairs in his library dusty; pictures hanging crooked on the wall; the room cold; a general sense of untidiness, uncleanliness and general disorder, he would register a kick and howl that would be heard all over the house. And yet — this same man spends his hours of business in an office where intelligent and regular janitor service is unknown, in fact where there are no facilities for such service. He sits through the dirt and dust. His clients and friends call; they do not see; they have become accustomed and hardened to the old order of things. And there lies the point. Few NEW faces do come. There is no attraction. Look this square in the face. Is this the case in your business? Think it over. There is a building in Wilmington which remedies all of these and many other troubles for $12.00 a month and up. Brighten up. Stir around a bit. Get yourself in the Murchison National Bank Building, and be proud of your office quarters. Visit the tenants already in this handsome building; talk to them. They have a message for you.
